

St. Joseph Nuns' Benefit Fete Set

To commemorate the 100th anniversary next year of the arrival of the first Sisters of St. Joseph in the Rochester area and to show their appreciation of the educational and charitable contributions the order of nuns has made to the community since 1854, Nazareth College students and alumnae will sponsor the Centenary Festival on the college grounds, 4245 East Ave., Oct. 16 and 17. The public is invited.

Spaghetti suppers both nights at 5:30 and 6:30, an auction of gifts from foreign countries, portrait sketching, games, booths and entertainment are some of the attractions scheduled.

Proceeds will be given the Sisters of St. Joseph, who conduct 52 elementary schools in the Rochester diocese, 22 of them in Rochester, the School of the Holy Childhood for exceptional children, St. Anne's Home for the Aged, St. Joseph's Villa, Nazareth College, Nazareth Academy and St. Agnes High School.

Young Matrons Hear Gallery Director

Young Matrons' Group of the Catholic Women's Club met Wednesday, Oct. 14 at the club house to hear Mrs. Gertrude Herdler Moore, Memorial Art Gallery director discuss "What the Gallery has to offer us and Our Children."

Hostesses under the chairmanship of Mrs. Norman Koeng were Mesdames John McCann, Carl Haelele, Edward Plau, Joseph Lally, Charles Cowan and Robert Casey.

FOR CHILDHOOD SCHOOL

HAND-DRESSED statue of the Infant of Prague is held by Mrs. Anthony Mastrotot (left) and Mrs. Lawrence Landise, members of the Guild Unit of the School of the Holy Childhood. Statues and other articles will be featured at the Christmas sale for the special school's benefit Oct. 16 and 17 evenings and Saturday afternoon, Oct. 17 at 215 Andrews St.

Monastery Benefit Card Party Listed For Carmelite Nuns At Civic Center

A new monastery for the Carmelite Sisters on property recently purchased is the goal of Friends of Carmel who have scheduled the annual benefit card party at Columbus Civic Center Auditorium, on Wednesday, Oct. 21.

The card party has the endorsement of His Excellency Bishop Kearney who is serving as honorary chairman.

Bishop Kearney has written the following to the friends of the Sisters:

"My dear Friends: The Annual Benefit Card Party for the Carmelite Sisters has my approval and I trust that this worthy cause will meet with good support. I wish you every success.

Sincerely yours in Christ James E. Kearney"

The Sisters are located in their present monastery at 1530 East Ave. which has become inadequate for their needs. The community is known as a "contemplative order," because they spend their time in prayer and devotions.

General chairman of the card party will be Mrs. Orr M. Sixbey, assisted by Mrs. Fred Hery and Mrs. Arthur Reeves, co-chairmen.

The following are committee chairmen and their committees:

Patrons — Miss Helen Costello, Mrs. Glenn Sixbey.

Tickets — Miss Patricia Morgan, Miss Agnes Carey, Mrs. John Sexton, Mrs. Hiram Barnes, Mrs. William Gordinier, Mrs. Leo Frayer.

Prizes — Mrs. Roy Spiggle, Mrs. Joseph Kunz, Mrs. John Van
