NEW And NOW

By ROBERT SMETT

The last of the polls—this time the high school age group, and this will be the summing up, for three levels, grammar, high and college.

Over half of the students had seen movies that they considered "immoral." A good number found "From Here To Eternity" in that category (rated B by the Legion);

The answers were unanimously correct when it came to a definition of "immoral," you can rest assured that the high-schoolers know what it means and that it is something to be avoided.

Over half of the group preferred musical movies, followed closely by romance, then mysteries and westerns.

Favorite actor of the teenagers is Tony Curtis, but not by any great margin; Burt Lancaster, Scott Brady, Montgomery Clift, Audie Murphy, Jeff Chandler, Rock Hudson and Alan Ladd, followed in quick succession.

Top Hollywood actress for the high school group is Debbie Reynolds, with Ann Blyth, Esther Williams, June Allyson and Doris Day following.

So let's sum up all this with a suggestion. Each week, the latest pictures out of Hollywood are reviewed by the Legion of Decency and listed in the Courier-Journal; once a month, a very complete list is printed.

I would like to suggest that you stay away from it until the Legion reviews the movie, certainly there are enough movie houses in the diocese offering a variety of hits.

Comedy Hit By Maureen Daly Billed By Nazareth Seniors

"You Can't Kiss Caroline," a fast moving romantic comedy by Maureen Daly, will be presented by the Senior class of Nazareth Academy on Wednesday and Thursday

Principals in the cast are as follows: "Caroline," a friendly and sincere person, Teresa Falocco; "Joe," captain of the football team, John B. Maier; "Ma Rand," owner of the drug store, Barbara Bauman; "Miss Jameson," science teacher, Gail Baglin; and "Susie," Caroline's precocious ten year old sister, Patricia Milne.

OTHERS IN THE cast are as follows: "Burny," Patricia Gabel; "Pat," Theresa Philopone; "Shirley," Molly Mook; "Jeanette," Virginia Foubister; "Sally," Sandra Gravano; "Milt," Bill Turner; "Johnnie," John Conolly; "Wille," Ted Maloney; "Stanley," Roger Bobach; and "Howie," James Lyons.

The plot is about Caroline who is no ordinary girl. In the two weeks she has been at East End High, she has broken every rule. She prefers to go bird watching than to go to a football game.

Production is under the direction of Mary Patricia Klee, stage manager; Mary Wynne, prompter; Marilyn Polaski, invitations and props; Sally Infantino, tickets.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Joseph Senary and Mrs. Armand St. Pierre.

IN VITATIONS: Carolyn Macdonald, Mary Latas, Joyce Mooney, Molly Hosenfeld, Ann Ennis, Joyce Eberhard, Joyce Warner, Joyce Spang, Mary

Jewish Mill Owner Offers Plant As Temporary Chapel

Woonsocket, R. I.—(AP)—A Jewish textile mill owner offered rent free the use of the second floor of his plant to a newly formed Woonsocket Catholic parish.

Joseph H. Axelrod, president of the Alredale Worsted Mills of this city, granted permission, to Father Ronald L. Gaudouy, pastor of the newly founded Our Lady of Martyrs parish, to use the mill for worship until it can provide its own quarters.

Glarence Dentinger To Direct Musical For Holy Family

Glarence Dentinger, newly elected vice president of Rochester's Holy Family Theatre will direct "Fair," a Rodgers and Hammerstein musical, to be presented for the first time on any stage on Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, November 22, 23, 24 and C. Dentinger 25, with a matinee on Sunday at 2:00 p.m.

Although a veteran actor of the past four productions of the Holy Family Theatre, this is Dentinger's first assignment as director since his teenage days at Holy Family Grammar School.

IN THE EARLY '30's he was tenor solo in a large scale minstrel show and gave several concerts.

They produced shows requiring extensive rehearsals, boasting a large repertoire and with the Elks Glee Club, under the direction of the late Charles Claus.

ASSISTING DENTINGER as officers of the Holy Family Theatre are: Joseph O'Connor, president; Helen Schraml, treasurer; Winifred McLaughlin, secretary; and Dolores D'Agostino, record secretary.

The Rev. E. Charles Bauer, assistant pastor of the Holy Family Church, is moderator and business manager of the Holy Family Theatre.
