Stepinac High Listed For Aquinas Eleven

Aquinas Institute football team will face the Crusaders of Archbishop Stepinac High School from White Plains, on Sunday, Oct. 18. Stepinac High has split in their two previous games, beating New Rochelle and losing to a stalwart Ionia Prep.

Last year the Red and Blue of Stepinac established a brilliant 6 and 2 record against some of the top high schools in the nation. One of their six victories was a 20-12 win over Aquinas. This year the Little Irish are seeking to even the slate with the Crusaders.

COACH DICK WERDER, an All-American from Georgetown Univ., has had a great deal of rebounding to do this year as he has lost 27 lettermen. He is depending heavily on his rugged 190 lb. line. The bulwarks of this forward wall are two 219 lb. tackles, Brendan Reilly and Larry Martin. In the backfield Stepinac has an outstanding quarterback in Tony Amendola who is an excellent passer and runner. Jim Logue and Herb Traver, starting halfbacks, are two boys who should give Aquinas some trouble on Sunday. Only three of the starting eleven for Stepinac are seniors, which is a unique feature in high school football.

Aquinas will have to be in top shape in order to keep their undefeated slate clean. Tickets for Sunday's game may be purchased at Aquinas Institute and at the Stadium on Sunday.
