3,876 Memberships In CYA Top Goal For 300 Workers

Three hundred campaign workers reported the smashing total of 3,876 new CYA members—1,376 over the 2,500 goal as the Columbus Youth Association drive ended in Columbus Civic Center, Tuesday night.

CWV Units Elect At Sacred Heart

Edward Plante was elected commander of Sacred Heart Post, Catholic War Veterans and Eleanor Shea was named president of the Auxiliary at elections held last week at Sacred Heart Cathedral Hall.

Officers of the Post named are: Rev. Edward J. McAniff, spiritual director; Commander Plante; Albert Farley, first vice commander; James McNeill, second vice commander; Frank McKenna, third vice commander; Robert O'Connor, treasurer; John Driscoll, historian; John Conway; Charles Lemon, judge advocate; Dr. Carl DeSando, medical officer; John O'Connor, Ralph Edwards and Marcel Mundry, trustees.

Elected with President Eleanor Shea are: Clara Holtz, first vice president; Eleanor Workman, second vice president; Eileen Manzek, third vice president; Nova Manuele, treasurer; Mary Driscoll, historian; Rita Durrant, welfare officer; Mary McKenna, ritual officer; Agnes McDonald, Mae Switzer and Mary Parisella, trustees.

Presented at the announcement of the final tally, Bishop Kearney addressed the campaigners for the 17th consecutive year. For his long and devoted service to the CYA, Bishop Kearney was presented a certificate award.

A SIMILAE award went to Monsignor Lambert, who until recently was diocesan director of Catholic Charities for 22 years.

In his talk, Bishop Kearney said the CYA supplements the character building programs of the home and school. He emphasized that the CYA is "an influence for good" in many ways, one of which is safeguarding children from juvenile delinquency.
