No Politics In Pulpit, People Tell Pollsters

St. Paul, Minn. - (NC) - Americans - 70 per cent of them want no talk of politics in the pulpit, a survey has claimed.

And Catholics head the list with 73 per cent saying they Anointing of the sick - Holy Ordon't think priests should discuss political issues at a ser- ders) mon during Mass.

Figures in the Catholic Digest poll revealed, however, that the - Rev. Albert J. In an article on the survey in its November issue, the Catholic Digest commented:

"The present political and religious climate of the U.S. is such that the disapproval of clergymen discussing politics in church seems to be the popular view in the U.S. The same question asked in Europe would undoubtedly draw a quite different response because of prevailing religious and political neumstances ... The situation in Europe should teach us that, in allerent circumstances, a different response would be quite logical and perhaps necessary."

Presbyterians led the religious groups in approving politics, Marks (Virtues and Precepts) in sermons, with 30 per cent in favor and 63 per cent against, Becoming And Living As A Next came the Episcopalians with 28 per cent approving and 59 per Follower of Christ - March 22 cent disapproving - the lowest nay vote of any religious group - Rev. ## Why The Yankees Won

Billy Martin's Hail Mary Beat Dodgers Honolulu, T.H.-(NC)-Take it from Billy Martin, it was a fervently recited Hail Mary that won the precedent-setting, fifth consecutive World Series for the New York Yankees. The second baseman should know. He recited the Hall Mary and then he hit the single that sent Hank Bauer scampering home with the winning run and the World title for the Yankees in the bottom of the ninth of the sixth game against Brook-Ivn's luckless Dodgers.

The series' hero made a deep Impression on a group of 200 sports followers who heard him tell the Hail Mary story at a Quarterback Club Juncheon in the Smile Cafe here. Martin came here with pitcher-teammate Eddle Lopat's All Stars, en route to Japan for a series
