Third Order Of Mount Carmel

Third Order Secular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel will meet at 3 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 1, at St. Francis of Assisi Church, Orange and Whitney Streets. Rev. Joseph A. Cirrincione, Spiritual Director, will conduct the meeting and receive the promises of profession to be made by 15 novices.

Anyone who is interested in attending the meeting is invited.

Two days of recollection for tertiaries are scheduled to be held at the Notre Dame Retreat House on Nov. 21 and 22. Rev. Howard Rafferty, O. Carm., Provincial Director of the Immaculate Heart Province of the Third Order, will come from Chicago to make his annual visitation and to conduct the days of recollection. Reservations for these days will be taken at the meeting on Sunday.

"During November the thoughts of every Catholic are centered on Purgatory and of the poor souls detained there awaiting their entrance into the Kingdom of Heaven," the announcement said. "Our dedication as tertiaries to the Queen of Carmel and our eventual participation in her promise to free from Purgatory those who wear her Scapular and fulfill their duties in life, gives us the hope of salvation that someday will mean everything to us.

"St. John of the Cross, eminent Doctor of the Church and one of the great mystics of the Carmelite Order whose feast falls on November 24, prayed that he would die on a Saturday so as to partake of this promise made by Our Lady of Carmel. These are his words. 'The Mother of God and of Carmel hastens to Purgatory with grace on Saturday, and delivers those souls who have worn her Scapular. Blessed be such a Lady who wills on this day that I should depart this life.' His prayer was answered and he died a few minutes after Friday midnight."
