

Planning Geneva USO Dedication

FRANCIS BERNARD GWINN JR., newly appointed director of Geneva USO, and Miss Mary Duddy, assistant director, go over plans for dedication ceremonies of the new USO quarters in Geneva on Sunday, Nov. 1. Gwynn was appointed by the National Catholic Community Service which operates Geneva's USO Club. He was formerly instructor in religion at Notre Dame and became affiliated with NCCS early in 1952. Both directors are members of St. Stephen's parish.

SE Nocturnal Men Name M. Kuebel

Mathias J. Kuebel, 43 Linden St. was elected president of South East Center, Nocturnal Adoration Society at the annual meeting in Blessed Sacrament Parish Hall. He succeeds Frank E. Wolfe who presided.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas F. Connors, center's moderator promised the men full support and cooperation. William Mulcahy of the North East Center told of his experiences in building up that organization.

Members heard that approximate attendance of men spending a one-hour vigil before the Blessed Sacrament was 215 per month. Members expressed preference for spending the last half hour of their adoration in silence.

A VOTE OF thanks was given retiring President Wolfe for his efforts in establishing the Center.

Elected with President Kuebel were: Arthur J. Fink and John W. Mattie, vice presidents; Robert H. Kalb, treasurer; Earle E. Schwartzoff, recording secretary; Edward J. Loeb, corresponding secretary and J. Roger Collins, marshal.

Barid Leaders are: 1.—Dr. Joseph H. Swagler; 2.—Robert H. Kalb; 3.—Mathias J. Kuebel; 4.—Robert F. Simmons; 5.—Walter B. Sullivan; 6.—Charles S. Drons; 7.—John W. Mattie; 8.—Eric P. Smith.
