

IFCA Members To Attend 'Dixie' Conference

New Orleans, La. will be the destination next week of two prominent Rochester club women, when the IFCA "Dixie Conference" convenes for a day.

Mrs. Mahoney, Regent of Rochester Circle, International Federation of Catholic Alumnae and Mrs. Frank Eaton, past Regent of Rochester Circle and present Governor of New York State Chapter.

THIS CONFERENCE, for Governors, Regents and moderators from all sections of the United States, is, in reality, a miniature convention. Its purpose, through an interchange of ideas, is to familiarize members with a closer knowledge of Federation aims and purposes.

Rev. Leo C. Mooney, Director of the Third Order of St. Francis, will conduct the ceremony of Profession at the next meeting on Monday, Nov. 22 at 8:30 p.m. in St. Patrick's Church, 454 Elymwood Ave. North. Only those who have completed a full year of novitiate in the order may be admitted to the ceremony.

Supper, Bazaar Scheduled By St. Stanislaus Women

Golombki and Paczki and all the Polish trimmings including Polish kitchens and cakes will be served for supper Sunday evening, Nov. 22 in the auditorium of St. Stanislaus parish.

A spaghetti supper will be served from 5 to 7:30 p.m. Polish music and songs will be heard during the meal. Sponsored by the Holy Name of Mary Society of St. Stanislaus, the proceeds will go toward the promotion of various Catholic action projects of the organization.

Rev. Chester M. Kloczek is spiritual director of the society and oratory chairman; Mrs. Harriet Plekunka, general chairman; and Rev. Msgr. Joseph A. Balcerak is pastor of the parish. Projects of the organization include bazaar games, with display booths set up throughout the auditorium showing off handmade goods such as lace doilies, aprons, linens and rugs, as well as appliances, baked goods, candies, food baskets. A fish pond will be provided for the kiddies.

Committee includes: Mrs. Clara Budinski, assisted by Mrs. Marcela Civalina, Polish supper; Mrs. Celia Whalen and Mrs. Rita Baker, dining room; Mrs. Jessie Balcerak, and Mrs. Irene Podsiadlo, program; Mrs. Grace Johnson, publicity; Mrs. Eleanor Bar-

Refreshments will be served during the evening. Tickets may be obtained from any member and at Zamliara's Market.
