Immaculate Youth Center To Stage 'Turkey Trot' Tonight

Annual Thanksgiving dance sponsored by the Immaculate Conception Parish will be held tonight (Friday) in the spacious Immaculate Auditorium. An invitation is being extended to all the high school students to attend this holiday affair.

Music for dancing will be furnished by Joe Nolan and his orchestra. The featured pianist will be Nat Fitzgerald who recently played with the nationally famous Lionel Hampton band.

Several novelty orchestral numbers will be played, especially the "Bunny Hop" which has proved to be so successful during the past month.

FOR THOSE who prefer to "sit-out" a few of the dance numbers there will be other forms of entertainment, such as Ping Pong, TV and radio.

The Immaculate will play host to the Beta Chi Delta Sorority on Friday Dec. 4. This organization will hold their dance in conjunction with the regular weekly dance. Advance sale tickets may be obtained from the members.

Notre Dame-SMU Game Attracts HRAA Members

Forty members including some with their wives of Holy Redeemer Athletic Association of Holy Redeemer Church will go by special car attached to the Lake Shore Limited at 1:40 a.m., Saturday, Dec. 5 to attend the Notre Dame-Southern Methodist football game on Dec. 5.

The special car will be on the siding at New York Central Station at 11 p.m., Friday.

The party will arrive in South Bend at 10:30 a.m. Following the game a tour of the campus will be made. The Rochester group will be housed at LaSalle Hotel in South Bend, Ind. for the overnight stay.

AFTER ARRIVING at Mass on Sunday morning in a body at Sacred Heart Church on the university campus, an additional campus tour will be made and friends will be visited. After dinner, at 1:15 p.m., the special car will be attached to the Packer leaving Chicago and will arrive at 12:02 Sunday night, Dec. 6.

Manager L. Manucci of the LaSalle Hotel made arrangements for bus transportation from the railroad station to the hotel and to the stadium for game and return.

The Rev. Theodore M. Heburgh, C.S.C. president of the University of Notre Dame was invited to Hotel LaSalle for the evening reception.

All arrangements for the trip and hotel accommodations are being handled by Jack O'Neill and Edward Schoenher.

Field Army Slates Tea, Get-Together

The Field Army of the Monroe County Branch of the American Cancer Society will hold its Annual Tea and good-fellowship gathering Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 1, from 2:00 to 4:00, at Rochester Chamber of Commerce.

On display will be samples of surplus drawings (which are made by Field Army volunteers), educational literature on various phases of cancer, and exhibits pointing up cancer danger signals.

At this meeting contributions of staple groceries and money are accepted for use in packing the Christmas baskets which are distributed each year.

Members are urged to bring friends who are unacquainted with the work of the Field Army, which is under the leadership of Mrs. Frank B. Dykell, Director.

National Congress La Paz, Bolivia

La Paz, Bolivia—(NC)—Bolivia's first National Congress of Religious was inaugurated here by Archbishop Sergio Pignedoli, Papal Nuncio to Bolivia, with an evening Mass attended by numerous missionary priests and Sisters.

Aquinas Ready For Grid Fray

With Chuck McKenna back in the lineup, Aquinas Institute's football team was awaiting eagerly its meeting with North Catholic High of Pittsburgh on Thanksgiving Day, as the teams went to press.

The game in Aquinas Memorial Stadium, with good weather, was expected to attract more than 2,000 persons and possibly 15,000.

Perpetual Help Society Meets At Nurses' Home

Meeting of the Perpetual Help Society will be held Wednesday, Dec. 2 at 2 p.m. in the Nurses' Home of St. Mary's Hospital.

Mrs. Theresa Schriener will be chairman assisted by Mesdames Gerard Roth, Gertrude Schlicker and W. C. Sauer.

Pinckney's 595 High In HN Loop

Amherst — Vern Pinckney had his book working Sunday as he reeled off games of 215, 226 (high singleton) and 154 for a 595 total to lead Georgetown to a 3 to 1 victory over Canisius. Pinckney inspired Jack Madden to 339; Captain John Miskell to 524 and Bud Wilson to 522. This victory increased Georgetown's lead to seven points.

Paul J. Graney with 208 and 535 total and Andy Paddy's 198 game helped Canisius to their one point.

Captain John Donnelly with 213 and a 572 total led Santa Clara to a 4 to 0 victory over Loyola. H. Jones with 530 helped put Santa Clara in second place. Last year's champions are on their way up.

Joe Spoto and Bernie Audet were best for Loyola.

Frank O'Connor with 203 and a 512 total led the Notre Dame team to a 4 to 0 victory over Gonzaga. Charlie Coughlin with 193 helped out in the last game. Notre Dame won the first game by 5 pins; the second by 8 pins and the last by 15 pins which shows what a close match it was.

Charlie Rice neglected to wear his red shirt and so Gonzaga was helpless. Howie Bishop was the best for the losers.
