'Living Rosary' Set Sunday In Corpus Christi Church

Two days before the opening of the Marian Year, the women of Corpus Christi Rosary Society will hold their annual Living Rosary on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 6 at 3:30 p.m.

The Shrine of the Immaculate Conception will be specially decorated for the occasion and a heart of red roses will be placed by participants in the Living Rosary. A violin solo of the Ave Maria will be played by Norbert Klein during the service.

The Rev. Paul Lynch, assistant pastor of St. John the Evangelist Church will be the speaker.

Following the Living Rosary there will be a social hour to which all members and women interested in becoming members of the Society are invited.

HOSTESSES for the Social Hour will include: Mrs. John J. Kost and Mrs. William O'Keefe presiding over refreshments; Mrs. William Cavanaugh; Mrs. William Farley; Mrs. William Glechaut; Miss Margaret Lynch; Miss Clara McGreal; Mrs. John J. McLaughlin; Mrs. Asa Rector; Miss Irene Schroedel; Miss Mary Warren and Mrs. Howard Williamson.

The Society will hold its December meeting and Christmas party on Monday, Dec. 7. Santa Claus will be present but instead of handing out gifts, he will accept them for St. Joseph's House of Hospitality.

There will be singing of Christmas carols and refreshments.

Mail Early Says Cain

With Christmas approaching, Acting Postmaster John S. Cain predicted the volume of holiday mail will exceed the all-time high of 11,175,805 cancellations recorded here in 1952.

Local residents and business firms alike were reminded by the acting Postmaster, "Correct and careful mailing is just as important as early mailing. Perhaps more so. Any unnecessary delay may prevent delivery of your Christmas cards and gifts by December 25." Acting Postmaster Cain lists haste and carelessness as chief trouble-makers for postal employees, and adds:

"There's no good reason for either. People still have a week or ten days for leisurely shopping. During that time give your Christmas card list a thorough going over. Be sure you have every one's full name, street and number, city, zone and state.

"Estimate the number of stamps you'll need. Stock up on a supply of heavy wrapping paper, string cord and parcel post labels. Then you'll be safely over the first hurdle in the race against time."

THE IMPORTANT thing, of course, is to get started now. If all gift packages are mailed by Dec. 5, and all Christmas cards by Dec. 15, they'll arrive shortly before Santa.

Patrons may submit their local address list to Room 101, Main Post Office, for insertion of zone numbers. List will be returned to them. There is no charge for this service.

Holy Apostles Group Sets Tureen Supper

Holy Apostles Rosarians will serve a tureen supper in the school auditorium, Thursday, Dec. 10 at 8:30 p.m. to mark their Christmas get-together.

Mrs. Ray Nary, president, has appointed Mrs. Levis Slyck and Mrs. Anthony Carbone as chairmen. Band leaders and members make up the general committee. In place of a gift exchange, guests are requested to donate Fifty-cents for hospital cheer.

Reservations should be made on or before Monday, Dec. 7. A social hour will follow the supper.

Cadet Inspection Honors Awarded

Nazareth Hall Cadet Staff Named, Platoon Rewarded

Officers of Nazareth Hall Cadet School were formally given rank at a ceremony held in the school auditorium on Wednesday, Dec. 2. Major Leo F. Mullen intalled the officers.

Cadet Major Carl E. Baum was given first place in the Company of Cadets.

Other cadets who received rank are as follows: Cadet Sergeant Majors: John V. Francis, David J. Nyhan.

Cadet Captains: Paul W. Nohelski, George J. Pappan, John A. DeSando, Alfred E. Caruana, Thomas E. Rodenhouse.

Cadet Lieutenants: Frederick G. Scavone, Robert W. Balconi, Philip M. Gruttadauria, Gerald F. Gallagher, David J. Trickler.

These cadets were chosen because they have manifested a keen sense of responsibility, fairness, ability to lead, loyalty to the school, carrying out their duty at all times and using their authority to better the Cadets Corps. It was announced at the school.

Following the installation of officers the Company of Cadets were rated on their appearance and drilling by Major Leo M. Mullen, Captain Roy M. Jacobs and Sergeant Joseph Donatelli of the Organized Reserve.

Competition was keen among the five platoons as to which should win the title "Honor Platoon". The Rev. John P. Norris, assistant pastor at St. Charles Borromeo Church, Greece, presented the trophy to the winning platoon, the Second Platoon.

Addressing the cadets Father Norris commended them saying

St. Agnes Grad's Essay Wins Prize

For her essay entitled "My Responsibilities Under the Bill of Rights," Elizabeth Gantert of the senior class of St. Agnes High School won the first prize of $100 in Saving Bonds in a contest sponsored by the Real Estate Board of Rochester in conjunction with the National Association of Real Estate Boards.

The award will be made at the Board's regular meeting in December.

Elizabeth's essay is being forwarded to the national headquarters in Washington where it will be entered in the National Contest.

The winner of the National Contest will receive a five-day all-expense paid trip to Washington in January.

Elizabeth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Gantert, 310 Winona Boulevard.

Athlete Honored
Larry Costello, captain of the Niagara University basketball team for 1953-54, was one of 18 seniors to be selected for listings in the 1954 Who's Who among students in American Colleges and universities.

St. Agnes High Graduates Mark 10th Anniversary

Alumnae Association of St. Agnes High School celebrated the tenth anniversary of the graduation of the school's first class, the Class of 1944, at the Annual Alumnae Banquet Nov. 29.

Guests of honor besides the members of the class who were able to attend, were the Rev. William J. O'Brien, the Rev. Roy Morphy and the Sisters of St. Joseph who were associated with the first class.

A representative of each of the ten graduating classes, expressed, first for the first class and for her own class, a word of gratitude for the blessings of the ten years.

Women To Hear Father Winiecki

Arch Confraternity of the Holy Family of St. Joseph's Church will meet Sunday, Dec. 6 following a High Mass in the Church at 7:30 a.m.

A communion breakfast will be served in the school hall following the Mass, and a conference will be conducted by the Spiritual Adviser, Rev. Joseph Winiecki, C.S.S.R.

Miss Margaret Wisler will serve as hostess for the breakfast and assisting her will be Misses Louise Carrell, Lucille Donke, Rita Hetzler, Martha Irwin, Lucy Meyer and Ruth Stoller.

Preparations are now under way for the annual Christmas Party which this year will be held Monday, Dec. 14, in the school hall. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. and reservations will be accepted through Dec. 6.

President Mary Reichert has appointed Miss Evelyn Cassidy as Chairman of the Christmas Party Committee. Assisting Miss Cassidy on the various committees will be: Tickets, Miss Marie Mayer; Decorations, Misses Lois Brayer and Mary Hynes; Program, Misses Alma Keller, Adelaide Biesenbach and Margaret Coleman; Gifts Committee, Misses Minnie Verhoeven, Antoinette Mayer, Catherine Ferris, Margaret Wisler and Irene Kress; Dinner Committee: Miss Ada Meng, Chairman, assisted by Misses Irene Weaver, Catherine Irwin, Louise Brown and Margaret Bradler.

There will be gifts for everyone. Guests of honor will be the priests of the Parish.

Members are urged to make reservations as soon as possible by calling Miss Marie Mayer, HA 7647, or by leaving their reservations with the secretary at the meeting on Dec. 6.
