'Little Three' Cage Teams To Vie For Memorial Trophy

A new Little Three Basketball Conference Trophy, a memorial to the four Niagara University students who were killed in an airplane crash in the Allegany hills last winter, has been placed in competition among Niagara, Canisius and St. Bonaventure.

The new award — named the Little Three Memorial Trophy — has been given to the Purple Eagles in recognition of their conference championship last season.

The presentation, made recently at Monteagle Ridge, was by Edward O'Grady, NU undergraduate who was chairman of the trophy committee named by the university's student council. O'Grady played a leading role in the establishment of the trophy, the funds for which were collected by subscription among the students of all three schools.

THE TROPHY has four pillars, each adorned with a golden eagle and a shield with the names of the four students inscribed upon the latter — James G. Sweeney, Jr., pilot of the plane, of Elmhurst, Queens; Richard N. Hens, of Wanakah; Donald L. Nichol, of Rochester, and William J. Murphy, of Lockport. In the center are two figures of basketball players with upraised arms and hands, holding a basketball. On the base are seven discs, six awaiting the names of future Little Three champions and the other with Niagara's name already inscribed upon it.

The trophy will go to the conference winner each season with the first three-time winner taking permanent possession.

The four students, in whose memory the trophy has been established, lost their lives on a plane trip to St. Bonaventure on Feb. 13 as they planned to "bomb" the St. Bona campus with "Beat Bona" leaflets just prior to the Niagara-Bona basketball contest. Their plane crashed in heavily wooded country and the wreckage was not discovered until Feb. 21 after a wide-spread search by hundreds of residents and students of Western and Central New York.

ND Offers 2 Law Scholarships

Notre Dame, Ind.—(NC)—Two new scholarships valued in excess of $1800 each have been established in the Notre Dame College of Law, according to the Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, C.S.C., university president. Father Hesburgh has designated that they be known as the John J. Cavanaugh Law Scholarships in honor of his predecessor, the Rev. John J. Cavanaugh, C.S.C., who served as president of Notre Dame from 1946 to 1952.

The scholarships, which will provide tuition in the Notre Dame Law School for three years, will be awarded annually to a graduate of the University's College of Arts and Letters and to a graduating senior in the College of Commerce, Dean Joseph O'Meara, Jr., explained. The law school dean emphasized that the scholarships will be awarded only to students who have demonstrated exceptional scholastic ability.

Dean O'Meara listed four steps to be taken by those interested in the new scholarships. An applicant must submit the regular application form for admission to the Notre Dame College of Law. He must write a letter providing additional pertinent information including a description of his extra-curricular activities and student employment at the University.

The applicant will be required to take the Law School Admission Test to be given at Notre Dame on Feb. 20. Finally, he must submit a transcript of his undergraduate grades.

Aquinas Classmates Assist Missionary

Graduates of Aquinas Institute, class of 1941, held a reunion at Greece Post, American Legion Home, last week and contributed a sum of $60 to be sent to a member of the class who is a missionary in Parkistan.

Recipient of the gift will be the Rev. Joseph O. Tierney, C.S.C., formerly of Rochester, a Notre Dame University graduate who is in the Holy Cross Fathers' mission out of Bengal, East Pakistan.

Jones Bowls 543 For Santa Clara

Auburn—H. Champ Jones rolled games of 150, 214 and 179 for a 543 total to lead the bowlers of the St. Aloysius Holy Name Bowling League. Jones along with Ed Russell who had 512 managed a break for Santa Clara with Georgetown, splitting the points 2 and 2.

Vern Pinckney with 523 and Bud Madden was a big help in the first and last games.

Glenn Beaston with 525 sparked the Loyola team to an even break with Gonzaga. Beaston so inspired Loyola that they got their two points by winning the second game by 137 pins.

Charlie Rice had on his red shirt and so Gonzaga won the first and last games for their two points. John Bodnar with 502; Father Haffey with 517; Howie Bishop's 199 game and Ray Sullivan's 186 game were a big help.

Charlie Coughlin had a special inspiration as he rolled 514 to lead Notre Dame to a three to one victory over Canisius. Joe Koegan, Frank O'Connor and Bernard Osterman helped out.

Paul J. Graney was high man for Canisius and along with Leo Tortorici Helped Canisius to their lone point.

THE BIG THREE: Loyola 2461; oNtre Dame 2445; Santa Clara 2301.

THE BIG FIVE: H. Champ Jones 543; Glenn Beaston 525; Vern Pinckney 523; Father Haffy 517; Charles Coughlin 514.

Aquinas Court Team Opens Tonight Against Franklin

The "Little Irish" of Aquinas open their 1953-54 basketball season, tonight, (Friday, Dec. 4) against Franklin High at the Franklin High School gym.

Aquinas lost nine players from last year's varsity as a result of graduation, but are still expecting a highly successful season.

The starting line-up will consist of Fred Wagner at center. Greg Britz a stalwart on last season's squad will be at one forward and Jerry Kotwas a star on last year's Junior Varsity team will be at the other forward.

Danny O'Brien and Mike Spang, two reliable performers will be at the guards. Pat Reddy, up from last year's Junior Varsity is due to see plenty of action.

The Irish squad will be slightly undermanned because Hank Angelone, Jim Burke, and Frank Doherty will be ineligible to play for two weeks.

The main game begins at 8:15 p.m. and a preliminary game between the Jay-Vee squads begins at 7 p.m.

This is always a great scholastic attraction because it continues the oldest athletic rivalry between Aquinas and public high school teams, it was said at the school.
