Think Of The Postman --- Hurry Christmas Mail

While Acting Postmaster John Cain would be the happiest man in town if tomorrow were Dec. 25, he must look forward however, to the avalanche of Christmas cards and gift packages yet to come to the Post Office.

HERE IS WHAT he is up against. He's just hired a group of temporary postal workers. He's expecting packages. Big packages, little packages; neatly wrapped and poorly wrapped; registered. The public is asked to place itself in his place.

He asks the public to cooperate, by following a few time-saving suggestions: "Wrap and mail your gifts two or three at a time. Don't let them pile up on your now, or at the Post Office later. Begin with those to be addressed to distant states."
