Varied Projects Reported By Auburn's Women Groups

Auburn — The Auburn Councillor, monthly publication of Auburn Deanery, Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, lists in its December issue a number of the charitable civic and religious projects of its affiliated organization. The report follows in part:

"The Catholic Nurses (Auburn Chapter, National Council of Catholic Nurses plan to use the proceeds from their Christmas Dance to buy a hearing aid for a small girl, and to make a contribution to the School for Retarded Children.

"The Rosary Society and Sacred Heart League at Holy Family are substituting a money contribution for the usual exchange of gifts at their annual Christmas party. The money will be given to the Pope's Storehouse Chairman (Mrs. Floyd C. Abrams, deanery chairman War Relief) for the purchase of new clothing for children.

"The Rosary and Scapular Society at St. Mary's present an entertainment at the County Home and take gifts, candy and fruit which are presented to the old people.

"The Catholic Daughters take Christmas remembrances to the elderly people in the nursing homes.

"Some of the women at St. Francis are providing clothing and a real Christmas for a mother and six children while the husband and father is in a nearby hospital.

"The Altar Society at the little St. Isaac Jogues Chapel in Fleming, wash and clean their chapel every weekend and for the Christmas season will do special decorating. They do their "giving" every week in the year.

"Members of the Mothers' Club at St. Alphonsus furnish a complete Christmas dinner, a supply of food and a fund of Christmas gifts for a needy family."

Mrs. L. Harvey Clark and Miss Mary F. Dunn edit and prepare for distribution the Councillor, Auburn Deanery Moderator, the Rev. Kieran J. Hickey, O. Carm. is editorial adviser.

School Girls' Choir Makes Debut At St. Stephen's

Geneva — Gowned in white and blue silk robes with matching blue and white beanies, a newly-organized Girls' Choir of St. Stephen's School made its Christmas debut recently at the annual Yuletide party of St. Stephen's Church Rosary Society.

The choir comprised of seventh and eighth grade girls, entertained about 140 members with a cantata, "The Childe Jesus." They were accompanied in their first appearance by James Lynch, organist of St. Stephen's Church.

SCENE OF the party was the Woman's Building. Rather than exchanging Christmas presents, members contributed to the Selma, Ala. mission.

The choir is under the direction of Sister Madeline Louise.

Party chairmen was Miss Madeline Buckley assisted by Mrs. Martin Lawlor, Mrs. John Bogart, Mrs. John Driscoll, Mrs. John Sline, Mrs. Fay Wetherbee, Mrs. Frank Monaco, Mrs. William Van Nortwick, Mrs. James Buckley, Mrs. Thomas Bolger and Miss Catherine Alcock.

Auburn Churches Join In Marian Year Observance

Auburn — Catholic Churches in the city of Auburn joined with all others in the Diocese in holding a Triduum in honor of the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. In each of the churches the services included the recitation of the Rosary, celebration of Holy Mass, a sermon and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

At Holy Family, St. Alphonsus St. Mary's, St. Hyacinth's and St. Francis of Assisi the services were held at 7:30 p.m. At St. Alphonsus on Monday evening and St. Hyacinth's on Tuesday, they were held in conjunction with the perpetual novenas conducted in those churches.

At St. Aloysius the services were scheduled for 5:30 p.m. In several of the churches the Marian Year prayer composed by Pope Pius XII was recited by the congregation.

Auburn CDA Unit To Allot Gifts

Auburn — Meeting of Court Auburn 263, Catholic Daughters of America, will precede the annual Christmas party Monday Dec. 14 in the C.D.A. Home on South Street. The meeting scheduled for 8 p.m. will be conducted by the grand regent, Mrs. George A. Snyder. Principal item on the agenda will be the allotting of the customary Christmas charities of Court Auburn. These go to civic as well as religious groups.

Mrs. Louis C. Dziedzic is general chairman of the party which is set for 9 p.m. and is open to members and guests. Gifts will be exchanged and individual gifts for Christmas baskets will be collected. A buffet lunch will conclude the evening.
