Social Dancing Classes will be held at Nazareth Hall beginning Tuesday, Jan. 5. In answer to a request for such an extra curricular activity, the Parents' Club of Nazareth Hall will sponsor this series. These classes are designed to teach not only the techniques and rhythms of ballroom dancing but afford an opportunity for young Catholic boys and girls to meet socially and be tutored in poise, posture, and social manners.

JACK McDONELL of the Ensign-McDonnell School is teacher and director of the classes. McDonnell has acquired a wide reputation in the teaching of dancing to thousands of school age boys and girls. The class will be held every Tuesday evening at Nazareth Hall from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. with the 6th, 7th, and 8th grade boys of the school acting as hosts to the girls from St. Agnes Grammar School and neighborhood schools. Parents desiring to enroll boys or girls in the class may do so by contacting Sister Marie Paulus.
