Mass Celebrated in Versailles Palace

Paris - (RNS) - For the first time since the separation of Church and State in 1905, Mass was celebrated in the chapel of Versailles Palace.

Present at the service were Catholic parliamentarians taking part in the vote for a new French President. They obtained special permission to use the chapel for a Votive Mass of the Holy Spirit to pray for guidance of the Electoral College in the task of choosing the President. The Mass was celebrated by Abbe Albert Gau, a deputy of the MRP (Popular Republican Movement). Other members of Parliament served as altar boys. Leading Cabinet officials were among those in the congregation.
