Immaculate Highchair Kids Set 3rd Year Sports Night

The 3rd Anniversary of the Immaculate Highchair Kids will be marked on Thursday, Feb. 18 with "the biggest Sports Night of their history," in Immaculate Auditorium, corner of Plymouth Ave. (North and Edinburgh St.)

Time of the show is 8:15 p.m. Ten bouts are on the card. Referee will be Abe Raff; timekeeper, Tex Katz. Seconds for the ten bouts will be Tom Moriarty and John McCormack. Bill Rankin and Ray Watson.

Feature attraction will be Umy Rutilo, Pontenotte (5-year-old) and Little Billy Dell, fighting for the "World's Underweight Crown." The boys tip the scales at about 40 pounds each.

Other nine bouts are:

Robert Blaby vs Ronald Stamps
Donald Flannery vs Phil Pledge
John Leyer vs Richard Leger
Richard Leyer vs Joseph Alphonse
Eddie Johnson vs Michael Marasco
Robert Stewart vs William Dunne
George Fontenette vs Michael Connor
Billy Barnes vs Raphael Vallot
Fred McMorro vs James Walsh

General admission is $1.00 and grammar school children, fifty cents.

The Highchair Kids program at Immaculate brings 70 boys to the school every Wednesday night and Saturday afternoon for training under the direction of Thomas Moriarty. The program seeks to train the boys to be real sportsmen and true gentlemen. They are not allowed to fight outside the ring. They are expected to maintain a good report in conduct in the classroom.

The boys are protected against injury and are taught that they are fighting as a sport and are

Work For Youth, Elmira Knights, Glen HNS Told

Watkins Glen — Work among youth to offset Godlessness in the future, members of Elmira Knights of Columbus and Watkins Glen Holy Name Society were urged by Eugene Connell, chairman of Albany K.C. Boys Life state chairman at a joint Communion Breakfast at Hotel Jefferson here, Sunday.

One hundred and seventy-five of the Elmira and Watkins Glen areas heard the address of the boys work leader.

Breakfast followed a Corporate Communion at St. Mary's of the Lake Church here. The High Mass at 8:30 a.m. celebrated by the Rev. Benedict Ehrmann, pastor, attracted more than 200 men.

Following the Mass the group headed by Elmira Knights of Columbus honor guard marched from the church to the Jefferson House.

"GODLESSNESS is a disease that is breaking down the living tissues of civilization," Connell declared at the breakfast.

"It is not easy to follow God today," Connell told the group in his talk. "We have a God given responsibility to reinstate Christ in the hearts of men," he said.

"Without God, the greater the disorder, without God, the greater the disturbance," he continued.

He deplored the absence of God in the United Nations program saying, "How can we have peace without the Prince of Peace?"

"We have the bread and butter of the Marshall Plan, the standing army but not the recognition of man's dependence upon God," he said.

"Secular education is tearing down our Christian way of life," he said. "Mention the name of the Lord at Harvard and they would laugh you off the campus. They call it academic freedom."

DURING HIS talk he urged his listeners to "sacrifice our time for our youth."

"Do you do anything for the future of your church, your Holy Name Society, do you sponsor a Boy Scout troop? We must be crusaders today, be zealous therefore."

Ex-St. Bona U. Grid Star, Stan Zajdel Signed As Aquinas Institute Head Coach

Stan Zajdel, a native of Bradenton, Fla., has been signed as principal, today, head football coach at Aquinas Institute. It was announced by Jablonski as head coach, applications for the post poured into the school. Applications were received from candidates in Maryland, Georgia, Ohio, Illinois, New York, New Jersey, and California. Many of the applicants were coaches of gridiron teams that have opposed Aquinas in past years.

Recommendations for Stan Zajdel became so numerous and sincere that the field narrowed considerably. Every coach who had him as a player sent in glowing reports on his work as a football player and also as coach. Joe Bach of Pittsburgh Steelers; Hugh Devore, former St. Bonaventure coach, John Agnone, line coach at St. Bohaventure and Art Rooney, owner of Pittsburgh Steelers praised his work.

STAN HAS coached for two years at Cardinal Mindszenty High School in Dunkirk, a Catholic school established recently for boys. With a total registration of 150 boys, Stan Zajdel had trouble finding enough boys for a team, but he was able to educate the people of Dunkirk to good, hard football.

When he informed authorities in Dunkirk that he was contemplating coming to Aquinas, he was immediately offered a temporary contract. His influence on boys has been such that several prominent men in Dunkirk have written to Aquinas asking that he be left in Dunkirk. His character references are outstanding.

Coach Hugh Devore made the statement that Stan Zajdel was the finest boy he had ever coached.

The new coach will assume his duties in September. Besides football, he will assist Lou Basile in basketball and also coach the baseball team.

Unbeaten Aquinas Five To Meet Albion, Franklin

The undefeated "Little Irish" basketball team of Aquinas Institute will be looking for number 23 and 24 in a row this weekend when they travel to Albion on Friday night and engage Franklin High Saturday night at Franklin.

Aquinas previously played and defeated Albion at the Sports Arena. Aquinas' high scoring trio of Britt, O'Brien and Wagner will be out to keep the Irish record unblemished in these weekend frays.

FRANKLIN STANDS as a possible road block in the Aquinas hopes for an undefeated season, the Irish edged Franklin in an earlier game.

Behind Jerry Diem and Tom LaSpina, Franklin boasts a well rounded attack capable of beating any team on a given night. Aquinas came up with another star against Holley last Saturday night. Jerry Kotvas scored 21 points in his outstanding performance of the season. If he continues to play this way the Aquinas hopes for this weekend will be boosted tremendously.

Auxiliary To Meet
Members of Holy Apostles Auxiliary, Knights of St. John will meet at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 17 in the school hall, with Mrs. Hazel Wachter presiding.

Xavier Club To Hold Open House

Coffee prices may have reached a new high, but there'll be plenty on hand for the Xavier Club Open House Party at Holy Cross Auditorium, Wednesday evening, Feb. 17, the committee announced today.

It'll be a full night for all attending, including dance interpretations by the Monte and Chase dance team, known to many area night-clubbers, the song stylings of Mike Casella, another area favorite for his night club work and also a finalist on Mont Nussbaum's "You Can Be A Star." There'll be dancing to the rhythmic music of Gap Mangione.

The festivities will officially close the Xavier Club's 1954 Membership Drive and give new members of the Club informally. Membership in the Club is open to post-high school age only; married or single.

Refreshments will be served.

Coming Scouts Slate Breakfast

Coming — As a feature of the local observance of National Boy Scout Week, Catholic Boy Scouts of Coming area will receive Holy Communion in a body Sunday morning, Feb. 14 at St. Mary's Church.

The Scouts will receive Communion at the 8:30 a.m. Mass, after which they and their parents will attend a Communion Breakfast at St. Patrick's School Hall, Philip Grannan, superintendent of the Department of Public Works, will act as toastmaster for the breakfast program.

Chairman William McCarthy has announced that Cub, Boy Scouts and Explorers will participate in the day's program. His committee on arrangements include Anthony Pappas, Edward Schneider, Charles Goller, Anthony Fratarangelo and Joseph Menihan.

Madden Hits 533 In Auburn Loop

Auburn — Jack Madden rolled games of 193, 213 and 147 for a total to lead the bowlers of the St. Aloysius Holy Name Bowling League. Madden was the spark-plug in the crucial match between Georgetown and Santa Clara; Jack led Georgetown to a three to one victory over Santa Clara whose hopes were considerably set back as they were dropped to 2 1/2 points behind first place. Bud Wilson was a help with 201 and 521. H. Champ Jones was best for Santa Clara.

Ray Sullivan with 523 led Gomez to a three to one victory over Loyola. Ray had 198 in the first and 178 in the last game to spark his team to victory. Eather Haffey with 520 helped out. This victory placed Gonzaga 1 point out of second place.

Joe Spolo was high man for Loyola and Glenn Beaton helped with 183 in the second game to give his team one point. Bernie Auder's 194 was in vain.

Notre Dame after losing the first game by 7 pins came back and won the second by one pin and romped home by a large margin in the last game to take a three to one victory over Canisius. Frank O'Connor was high man for Notre Dame; Freddy Gilbert helped out with 195 in the last game.

THE BIG THREE: Georgetown 2349, Notre Dame 2341, Canisius 2306.

THE BIG FIVE: Jack Madden 553, Ray Sullivan 523, Bud Wilson 521, Eather Haffey 520, Frank O'Connor 486.
