

Catholic Enquiry Forum To Open At Whitefriars

Auburn — The second annual Catholic Enquiry Forum is scheduled to open on Ash Wednesday, March 3 at 8:15 p.m. at Whitefriars, Carmelite Monastery on South Street.

The series of informative talks given on what Catholics believe and why they so believe, is designed primarily for those interested in the teachings of the Church, and for those who are about to marry or who have married a Catholic, although all Catholics who desire a better understanding of their faith are welcome.

The speakers, Rev. Francis P. Donohue and Rev. Joseph M. Snyder, professors at Whitefriars, Carmelite Monastery, will conduct the series on each Wednesday evening for 18 consecutive weeks.

The first talk on March 3, after the Lenten devotions in the parish churches, is entitled "The Existence of God," and a question and answer period will follow. A complete listing of the subject matter of the forum will be given at a later date. No admission fee or cost is involved.

Helping with the arrangements of the enquiry series is the following committee: Mrs. Francis J. Collins, Chairman, assisted by John H. Bacon, Miss Bernice Cunningham, George Train, Conrad Riedel, Miss Mary E. Dunn, Richard Watros, Anthony Morlet, and Robert F. Marren.

Scout Honors Given Two At Corning Church

Corning — A Scout is the boy leader of today and the adult leader of tomorrow, the Rev. Terence Cummings, S.A., of Montour Falls told nearly 200 Catholic Scouts, Cubs, Explorers, their parents, Scouting leaders and guests attending the annual Scout Sunday Communion Breakfast in St. Patrick's Church last Sunday morning.

These at the breakfast had attended the 8:30 a.m. Mass at St. Mary's Church in a body and received Holy Communion. The day's observance for Corning and Painted Post area Catholics was held in conjunction with the nationwide celebration of National Boy Scout Week.

Special recognition was given to two leaders in St. Patrick's Parish for their work among youth. The Rev. William M. Cannon, pastor of the church, was presented a large Valentine heart distinguished by most of those in attendance, and Robert Sutherland, Scoutmaster of the parish's Scout Troop 21, was awarded a Scoutmaster's badge and his wife was given a sash as a Scoutmaster's wife.
