St. Ambrose HNS Ceremony Invests 40 Altar, Choir Boys At St. Monica's

Forty altar and choir boys were solemnly invested as apprentices in the Knights of the Altar, with cassock and surplice, in a ceremony conducted in St. Monica Church, Rochester, on Feb. 28.

They became members of St. Monica's Unit, of which the Very Rev. Msgr. Gerald C. Lambert is pastor. The Rev. William F. White, assistant pastor, is unit director.

IN A RELIGIOUS ceremony the priest, with four Knight Commanders, placing the cassock on the shoulder of each candidate said: "Receive this cassock with the greatest respect for it is part of the armor you shall wear as a Knight in the service of our Lord and Master, Jesus Christ."

After receiving the cassock and surplice, the boys took the pledge of allegiance to the Knights promising service and fidelity to Our Lord, His Vicar, to Mary, their Queen and to other representatives of Christ on earth.

The 40 remaining boys of the organization received pins, symbolic of the different ranks of page and of knight for which they qualified. Choir Boys received a medal for two years of faithful service in church music. The ceremony concluded with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament as the boys sang hymns of praise to their Eucharistic King.
