

Banking Forum At Nazareth Set For Graduates, Seniors

More and more, women are facing life's important economic problems. They are making decisions about investing, home owning, will-making.

To meet this need, members of the Nazareth College Alumnae Association and the present senior class, will gather at Medallion Hall on Tuesday evening, March 20, at 8 p.m. to attend a Forum given by members of the American Association of Bank Women.

ELITE ROY, alumna of the College and supervisor of the Trust Department of Security Trust, is chairman. The following are members of the Forum: Miss Leah Woodruff, Assistant Secretary of Community Savings Bank. Her subject is "Home Owning and Home Renting." Miss Mildred Cramer, Account Supervisor at Security Trust. She will discuss "Basic Budgeting." Mrs. Joseph Foreman, Assistant Trust Officer at Union Trust. Her phase of the problem is "Wills and Estate Planning." Miss Lois Weingartner, Trust Administrator of Lincoln Rochester Trust. She will consider the subject of "Investments." There will be a question-and-answer period after the discussion.

Beales speaking at the Forum, other members of the American Association of Bank Women will be guests at the discussion. They will help answer any question, will talk informally to the Alumnae. They are Mrs. Arthur Hanratty, Miss Elizabeth Vogel, Miss Louise Zeitler, Miss Mildred Gesell, Miss Kathryn Love, Miss Madelyn Sullivan.

Alumnae committee members are: Miss Mary Sullivan and Mrs. Frank Carroll Nixon, chairman of Arrangements and Refreshments; Mrs. William Heldt, chairman of Invitations; Miss Cynthia Smith, chairman of Reservations; Miss Marie Collins, chairman of Publicity; Mrs. Joseph Hanlon, chairman of Gratuities.

Red Cross Session Attended At Cornell
Three Nazareth College students attended the Red Cross College Conference on Cornell University campus last Saturday. They are Audrey Lovelace, Barbara Provenzano, and Joan Garagan. Miss Lovelace is Red Cross representative from the women's college. The others are active in the college's blood-procurement program.

Purpose of the program, according to Miss Lovelace, is to train Red Cross leaders for the community and to form a connecting link between junior and senior Red Cross activities. Another conference to be held in Rochester is planned for the fall, she said.

Health and safety, first aid, first aid, home nursing, blood procurement, service to campus and community and organization of Red Cross activities on campus were some of the topics discussed at the all-day meeting. The conference closed with dinner at 6 p.m.

1000 Invitations Out For Young People's Mission
Invitations to more than 1,000 young people in the Western part of the city were sent out this week to attend the Young People's Mission at St. Peter and Paul's Church, Rochester from March 28 to April 2. The Young Men's and Ladies Sodality, with Miss Elizabeth Lipani as Prefect, is supervising the issuing of the invitations. The good news that "Father Amy is coming back to give the Mission" will be an incentive to all the young people.

MISS LIPANI said today: "We are especially interested in having the Public School students attend the Mission, but so great an interest in attending has manifested by the students at our Catholic High Schools, that we are extending an invitation to them."

She cited this statement from a Catholic High School student: "The last Young People's Mission that I attended was wonderful. The best I have ever made. The topic treated by Father Amy were just the right ones for us. I'm sorry the mission had to end so soon."

Miss Flora Romano of Nazareth Academy; Miss Patricia Balduino of Mercy High School; and Larry Culhane of Aquinas Institute are in charge of the invitations in the respective schools.

Each of the above teams has just one game in thirteen games played. Games will be played in the C.Y.A. gym, 50 Chestnut St.

Mothers To Organize At St. Stanislaus
How to organize Mothers' Circles in St. Stanislaus Parish was explained to members of the Holy Name Of Mary Society meeting March 9 in the school hall by Mrs. Theodore Strohmeyer, chairman of Mothers' Circles of Rochester. Diocesan Council of Catholic Women and a member of St. Anne's Church.

Mrs. Strohmeyer explained that groups of mothers of Catholic children meet to study and discuss the spiritual and everyday problems of their children. Mothers of children on the same age level form a unit.

Meetings are held in the homes of the members once a month with about 15 mothers in a group. The hostess is usually the leader.

Mrs. Strohmeyer said she will attend any of the meetings for further guidance on the organization.

Family Guidance Group To Receive Communion In Body

The Family Guidance Group of Immaculate Conception Parish will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 9 a.m. Mass on Sunday, March 21.

Because St. Joseph is considered the patron of families, this Group has adopted the custom of receiving Holy Communion in a group on the Sunday nearest to St. Joseph's feast day. The practice is of only a few years' duration, but each year the number participating has multiplied — not merely increased.

SPACE IS reserved behind the children in the center aisle, and each year more space in the aisle is reserved for the communicants. "It is an impressive sight to view the large number of adults filing up to the altar — pew after pew being completely emptied. Many members are not active at meetings or constant in attendance, but they do not fail to appear and participate on this occasion," leaders said today.

There is no other March meeting of the Family Guidance Group and another meeting will not be held until late in April or early in May.

FORTY HOURS
Devotions of the Forty Hours will be conducted in the following churches of the Diocese of Rochester:

Sunday, March 21 — Lyons; Fairport; Spencerport.

Vocation Dinner At Holy Rosary Termed Success
A successful Vocation Dinner sponsored by Our Lady's Sodality was held at Holy Rosary Parish Hall on March 11. Various representatives of different walks in life spoke to the sodalists.

Speaker at the dinner, the Rev. Eugene H. McFarland, diocesan youth director, who was presented by the Rev. James J. Marvin, sodality moderator, spoke on the true meaning of the word vocation to 90 sodalists.

Guests also included the Rt. Rev. Mgr. Charles F. Shay, pastor; the Very Rev. Mgr. Dennis W. Hickey, the Rev. Paul G. Wohlhab and the Rev. Bernard Dolan.

Speakers on vocations and professions for Catholic youth were: Sister Thomaaina, S.S.J., Dr. Angelo A. Mastrella, Kay Romaut, Emmett J. Schnepp, Donald Foley, Elizabeth Stokes, Anna Mae Neary, Arthur Ennis, Thomas Brien, Edward Deviny, Margaret McGrath and Mary Mason.

Officers of the Sodality, Marie Cornella, prefect; Patrick Reddy, vice prefect; Virginia Bealun, treasurer and Barbara Gullino, secretary entertained the guests at the speakers table.

Success of the dinner was attributed to Mrs. Helen Ras and her committee of mothers, eighth grade girls who served, and members of the Catholic Truth Committee who planned the affair, Shirley Ross was chairman.
