Rochester Women Profess Vows As 'Cenacle' Nuns

Two young Rochester women repeated their first vows in the Society of Our Lady of the Retreat in the Cenacle on March 30 at the Cenacle Convent, Lake Ronkonkoma, Long Island, N. Y.

Madame Kathleen Flannigan, daughter of Mrs. Thomas R. Flannigan and the late Mr. Flannigan, 2924 Lake Ave., and Madame Annette Matile, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Matile, 303 Browncroft Blvd., were part of a class of 10 novices who took their first vows from the Most Rev. John J. Boardman, Auxiliary Bishop of Brooklyn, who also celebrated the Mass.

A PROFESSION sermon was given by His Excellency, the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, Bishop of Rochester.

Explaining the significance of the ceremony, he said: "During this Marian Year, none of us will approach so closely to the real spirit, a year dedicated to the Immaculate Mother of God, as we do this morning, when we witness once again the Annunciation and the famous acceptance. Behold the Handmaid of the Lord, be it done unto me according to Thy word."

Our Blessed Lady was quite young when she realized that protection was a very important part of her work and as she folded her mantle over the infant Jesus and prepared for that night into a night when she was to be the mother of the world, she said "Be it done unto me according to Thy word." So you are going to fold your mantles over the children of our generation. You will teach them to meditate. You will teach them to pray. You will teach them to live alone with their thoughts and alone with God in a world that is wont to rob them of their thoughts of God.
