Women Told America Should Return To Founder's Faith

Geneva—Approximately one hundred women heard the Rev. Edward J. Shamon, assistant pastor of St. Agnes Church, Avon, and former Auburnian, speak on "Faith" at the April First Saturday Luncheon at the Osborne Hotel.

The Rev. John B. Crowley, pastor of St. Aloysius Church, in introducing the speaker, took note of the historical account of the early disciples of Christ starting out on their missionary journeys "two by two." Turning to Mrs. Asad C. Shamon, mother of the speaker, Father Crowley declared: "And here is a lady who sent her twin sons, like the disciples of old, two by two, out in God's service as His priests."

The luncheon committee has been apprized that Saturday was the birthday of the Fathers Shamon had a surprise for the speaker when a beautiful birthday cake was brought into the speaker's table. The cake baked by Mrs. Elizabeth Ciampaglia, president of the Sacred Heart Society of St. Francis of Assisi Church, was topped with two candles in the form of angels.
