

'MSGR. LAMBERT' TROPHY

TO THE WINNERS of an inter-diocese basketball game, St. Mary's School for the Deaf team, Buffalo Parish, champions, the Rev. William F. White, of Rochester, presents the "Monsignor Gerald F. Lambert" Trophy following the game with St. Monica's, Rochester diocese grammar school champs in Buffalo March 31. The Buffalo team won 56 to 38.

St. James Five Victory Forces Tier CYO Playoff

Waverly — St. James varsity court five forced a playoff for the second place trophy in the Catholic Youth Organization Southern Tier Court Loop by defeating SS Peter and Paul's of Elmira, 39-38 at the Elmira church court Tuesday night.

THE VICTORY placed St. James and SS Peter and Paul's second in the final standings with identical 8-4 records for the season. St. Mary's of Elmira finished first. The playoff game to decide the winner of the runner-up trophy is yet to be scheduled.

Jack Schamel's 15 points and 13 by Russ Fahy paced the locals to their hard-earned win. They held period leads of 62-14-0 and 28-20. In the final period, SS Peter and Paul's crept closer as the game drew to its waning seconds, but they never took the lead and failed to knot the count at anytime. Eight for the losers was their net with 16.

Playing for the winners were Ed Sullivan, Dave Hogan, Fahy, Schamel, Vin Moro and Dean Egnel. Bob Payne and Joe Hogan, two regulars, were not able to play in Tuesday night's game. Waverly also won the jayvee tilt, 39-34. Mike Leary netted 14 points, Bob Cortright had 11 and Jim Gray got nine to pace the winners. Galpin had 14 for the losers.

Waverly — St. James varsity five was eliminated by Ithaca from the court tournament sponsored by Elmira SS Peter and Paul's church in a double overtime game Sunday night, 39-37.

At the end of the regulation time, Waverly and Ithaca were tied at 35-all. Each counted a bucket in the first overtime with Dean Prinz scoring for Waverly to again end in a deadlock at 37-all.

In the second overtime, Ithaca's Diamond scored two foul shots to earn the victory. Russ Fahy had 18 for Waverly. On Saturday night, Waverly was defeated by St. Peter and Paul's, 50-27.

Engagements

Corning — The engagement of their daughter, Miss Betty R. Hansen, to Robert W. Driscoll, both of Corning, is announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hansen of 275 Bridge St.

Miss Hansen, a honor graduate of Corning Northside High School and Altany State Teachers College, is a member of the office staff of the New York Telephone Company in Corning serving as service representative. Her future husband, son of William H. Driscoll of 134 Columbus St. and the late Mrs. Joanna F. Driscoll of this city, is a graduate of Corning Free Academy. He is a partner with his father and brother Adrian in operation of the Standard Dry Cleaners firm.

Corning — Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Kennedy, 311 Main Street, Vandling, Pa., announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Agnes to Roger McAllister, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. McAllister of 507 Park Place, Painted Post. The marriage will take place April 24. Miss Kennedy is a graduate of Vandling High School and St. Mary's School of Nursing.

The prospective groom is an engineer having attended both the University of Michigan and Syracuse University, in college he was affiliated with the Kappa Sigma fraternity. He served with the United States Navy during World War II.

'Church In Silence' Masses In Corning

Corning — St. Patrick's Church held a special Mass "for the Church in Silence," Sunday at 8 p.m. in response to a request by His Excellency Bishop Kearney. The Mass was concluded with the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, according to the Rev. William Carran, pastor. The Mass concluded a public exposition of the Blessed Sacrament which was placed on Church altars after the last Mass on Sunday morning.

Other Catholic churches in Corning and Painted Post also had the exposition and concluded the day with recitation of the Rosary and Benediction.

At the close of the 11:15 Mass at St. Mary's there was an exposition of the Blessed Sacrament which continued until 5:15 p.m. At that time there was Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

The exposition followed the 12:15 Mass Sunday in St. Vincent de Paul's Church continuing until 5 o'clock when there was the recitation of the Rosary, special prayers for peace and Benediction.

In the Church of the Immaculate Heart of Mary in Painted Post the 5 o'clock afternoon service closed the exposition with the Rosary Recitation and the Benediction.

2 Corning Men Buy Three-Story Building

Corning — Two well known Corning Catholic businessmen and professional men, Frank Bonady, proprietor of the Wilbridge Hotel, and Dr. M. J. Chimera of 131 E. First St., have purchased the three-story building at the corner of W. Pulteney and Bridge Sts. from the Market Basket Corp. and plan to rent it as an investment. Mr. Bonady said also that he has purchased the four-apartment house at 163 East Third Street from Carley E. Lewis of Caton, as an investment.
