Art Students At Women's College

Preparing for the annual Art Exhibit to be held at Nazareth College, Apr. 30 and May 1, are June Rufino, left; Marilyn DiStasio, center; Callista Estergard, below; and Louise Connor, right. Senior fine arts majors in the women's college they are four of the seven students whose work will be featured. The sketch hanging on the wall is of Mr. James E. Havens, faculty member.

Nazareth College Artists Slate Exhibit Of Works

The work of seven students majoring in fine arts will be featured at the annual Nazareth College Senior Art Exhibit, Apr. 30 and May 2, according to Sister Magdalen, chairman of the women's college art department. The exhibit will be open to the public from 4 until 9:30 p.m. Friday, April 30, and from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. Sunday, May 2. Guide service and refreshments will be provided.

THE YOUNG artists, who will be present to discuss their work with visitors, are: Louise H. Connor, daughter of Mrs. Helen R. Connor, 50 Electric Ave., a graduate of Nazareth Academy; Marilyn DiStasio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew DiStasio, 12 Willow St.

Also of the Academy: June M. Rufino, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Rufino, 53 Dorset St.; Our Lady of Mercy High School; Callista Estergard, Marcellus, N. Y.; Ann Holman, Schenectady, N. Y.; Joyce Dembski, Albany; and Nancy Wagner, Buffalo.

All are scheduled to receive the Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in Public School Art on June 2. Their program, which includes liberal arts and education as well as fine arts courses, meets the requirements of the State Education department for the teaching of art.

THE WORK to be exhibited was done under the direction of the Nazareth College art department faculty, which consists of Hermann Wild, assistant in sculptural art; James D. Havens, A.N.A., assistant in fine arts; Nancy Lee, assistant in interior decoration; Sylvia Davis, assistant in fine arts; Alice White, assistant in crafts; John Solowski, instructor of art education; and Sister Magdalen.

Among the works to be shown, Sister Magdalen said, are oils, water colors, pastels, tempera, charcoal, textile designs, fashion illustrations, ceramics, weaving, and leather, metal and paper crafts.

Usually held later in May, the time of the exhibit has been moved ahead this year for the benefit of delegates to the annual convention of the New York State Art Teachers Association to be held in Rochester, Apr. 28-30.
