Thank God Mothers Works

National observance of Mother's Day this Sunday exposes the fact that there is still a place for noble sentiment in the heart of America. There is always hope for a nation which respects motherhood. So it is good that we stop once a year, even if for only one day, and remind ourselves that mothers are very important people — the VIFS of American

What is a Mother! We all think we know but when we start to describe her role we find ourselves speaking in halting accents. Perhaps we can appraise her role with some measure of accuracy and completeness by saying that a mother is the "Number One Trouble-shooter of the American

A mother must be always a mother. In her own family tircle she must be on duty 24 hours a day. For her little ones ale is the fulltime guardian angel. Daily and hourly she is called upon to fill in as doctor, nurse, lawyer, counselor, judge, and psychologist. She is the toymaker and
