St. Stephen Club To Meet June 16

Geneva — St. Stephen's Club is planning a meeting for June 16 in Geneva Country Club.

A highlight of this year's program was the well-attended evening Mass and Communion supper held recently.

Members attended the High Mass celebrated by the Rev. Raymond P. Nolan, society moderator, in St. Stephen's Church. James Lynch was organist.

A buffet supper was served later to the members in the Seneca Lake Country Club when plans for the summer program were discussed.

John Pfeiffer and Mrs. Frank Murphy were co-chairmen on arrangements for the supper.

Next meeting will be featured by a monkey tournament June 16 at Geneva Country Club. The tournament will be followed by a supper in the clubhouse.

Puerto Rican Talk Slated By Business Women

Business Women of the Catholic Women's Club will meet Tuesday evening, May 25, following a dinner at the club house.

Miss Gladys Feliciano, a social worker at the Catholic Family Center, will talk to the group on the work of the Reverend Arthur E. Ratigan, Diocesan Director.

A native of Mayaguez, Puerto Rico, Miss Feliciano holds a Bachelor's degree for the University of Puerto Rico, where she received her training in social work. Before leaving Puerto Rico, she had three years experience in public assistance and child welfare work.

Catholic Charities has traditionally offered services to new arrivals in Rochester. Under the leadership of the Reverend Arthur E. Ratigan, Diocesan Director, plans were made to meet the needs of newcomers from Puerto Rico. The Columbus Youth Association took responsibility for developing a group work program and Catholic Family Center for providing casework services.

Miss Feliciano joined the staff of Catholic Family Center in Jan. 1954 and provides counseling and social welfare care for Puerto Rican clients applying to the agency. She is active in the Hispano American Club sponsored by CYA. In addition she serves as a consultant in regard to Puerto Ricans to the other social and health agencies in Rochester.

Miss Alice Gallagher will act as dinner chairman. The evening's program will conclude with a white elephant sale for which Miss Marguerite Colgan will act as auctioneer. From the proceeds of this sale, a gift will be made to the work of the Family project for the Puerto Ricans.

Reception committee is headed by Elvay Marshall Sr., assisted by Elvay Marshall Jr., Vincent T. Laggett, Past Grand Knight Arthur J. Cowan will be toastmaster.

Together with the Rosary Society, the Holy Name Men will present a Spaghetti Supper in the school hall Wednesday evening, May 26.

Francis Barnard of the Holy Name and Mrs. Anthony Trippi of the Rosary Society will act as co-chairmen.

GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

THE WORLD So much needs the Cross that when Christians drop it, the Communists pick it up. The Cross stands for self sacrifice, self-denial, and the crucifixion of our baser passions that we may rise in the newness of the spirit of Christ.

The Communists are now preaching sacrifice. In China they have organized "Sacrifices for Communism." Among sacrifices suggested to the people are:

1. To give up smoking.
2. To give up salary.
3. To wear no shoes.
4. To work sixteen hours a day.
5. To live on one meal a day.

Can we let it be said that the Communists will do more for the cause of China than we would do for the cause of Christ? If we Catholics return not to the Cross, we will perish by the sword. Make therefore a daily sacrifice even though it is only a cigarette or an extra hour of work. At the end of the month send the equivalent of your sacrifice to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

We are moving, save your pennies. We will tell you the connection later.

GOD LOVE YOU to W. P. L. for $18. "I reduced my lunch from 41c to 31c and walked to and from the station. It did me so much good spiritually that I have decided to carry on for another forty days. If I persist you will hear from me again on Ascension Thursday." — L. N. H. (The enclosed $5 was saved on Palm Sunday when I stayed at home and ate a sandwich instead of going to an expensive restaurant for dinner. . . . To A. A. D. for $5 "I have just started selling cars. I have promised ten percent of every commission on each car to the Mission. Here is the first one." — P. F. for $1 "I am in the fifth grade and I won third place in a spelling bee. Here is half of my award."

A good lipstick costs $1. A WORLDWISDOM ROSARY COSTS THE SAME! A pound of pipe tobacco cost $1. A WORLDWISDOM ROSARY COSTS THE SAME! Two movie tickets cost $2. A WORLDWISDOM ROSARY COSTS THE SAME!

Instead of the few minutes of self-indulgence that a lipstick, a smoke or a movie would provide, sacrifice these small pleasures for a WORLDWISDOM ROSARY and gain eternal graces not only for yourself, but for all the people of the mission. Send a $2 offering and your request and we will send you a WORLDWISDOM ROSARY blessed by me.

Cut out the coupon, give your sacrifice to it and send it to the Most Reverend Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 100 East 88th Street, New York 17, New York or your Diocesan Director Very Rev. Msgr. John S. Randall 58 Chestnut Street, Rochester, New York.

Mothers, Daughters Banquet Held By Dansville Ladies

Dansville — Mothers and daughters of the Ladies Auxiliary, Knights of Columbus held their eleventh annual banquet at the Moose Club on May 10. Members and guests heard the Rev. Louis J. Hohman, Spiritual Director of St. Andrew's Seminary, speak on "Mary—Her Sacraments." Mrs. Florence Beckwith, president, served as toastmistress.

"Crowning of Mary, Our Blessed Mothers by Hill Mary Beth Kelley opened the program, accompanied by the singing of "Oh, Mary We Crown Thee With Blossoms Today" by the Misses Lucille Vogt and Joanne Smith.

ONE OF THE oldest and most active mothers, Mrs. Andrew Gould Sr., was honored by Mrs. Gertrude Morsch, past president. A tribute to "A Mother from her Daughter" was rendered to Mrs. Regina Vogt by her daughter, Lucille, and a tribute to "A Daughter from her Mother" was made by Mrs. Frank Gilligan to her daughter, Ann.

Father Hohman was introduced by the Rev. John C. O'Donnell, moderator. While we may honor Mary in many ways, as in song, in art, in poetry, in pageantry, in pilgrimages, Father Hohman stressed that the best way to honor her is by imitating her and thus be brought closer to our Divine Lord.

"In communion we have the same privilege that was given (Mary's)," said Father Hohman "to carry our God within us."
