

There is a certain blend of courage, integrity, character and principle which has no satisfactory dictionary name but has been called different things at different times in different countries. Our American name for it is "guts"—Louis Adams.

Religious Rites Open Nazareth Grads' Week

A four-day program of religious and social activities has been scheduled for Nazareth College seniors in anticipation of Commencement exercises Wednesday afternoon June 2. Beginning with a Day of Reflection Saturday, May 29, and including Baccalaureate Sunday, Monday, May 30, the program will be concluded with a formal Senior Ball Commencement night.

Education of the seniors is formally and finally completed when they are given a chance to see themselves as others see them. The Commencement exercises, their well-known characteristics and mannerisms are exaggerated in a good-natured satirical skit produced by juniors.

Before Mass, students and faculty in academic garb will march in procession from the college Administration building to the Motherhouse Chapel. Leading the procession will be senior class president Mary Smith Gasport, and Carolyn Paola, Groversville, president of the Undergraduate Association.

Resident students will dine together formally Sunday night in Medaille Hall, college residence building. Joan Williams, Dunkirk, is in charge of the affair. As resident president she presided over symposium activities during the week.

Each evening, religious and lay faculty, and Bishop Kearney will be guests of Sister Rose Angela, dean at a formal dinner. Sister Margaret Teresa, professor of literature and book-reviewer for the Courier-Journal will be the principal speaker.

June schedule of spiritual exercises for women at the Cenacle Convent, 603 East Ave., Rochester, follows: RETREATS JUNE 4-6—Catholic Women's Club of Buffalo and General, Rev. Terence Cunningham, S.A.

Mrs. Nolan Heads St. Mary's Group

Auburn—New officers were elected for the year 1954-55 by St. Mary's Rosary & Scapular Society Thursday evening in Lyceum Hall.

After the business meeting refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. John H. Welch, Mrs. Timothy E. Murley, Miss Helen Wawaszek, and Miss Dorothy Fitzgerald.

Plan For A Tea

Since organizations are always looking for ways in which to make their programs more attractive, I am going to recount to you my experiences at an unusual tea which I attended within the past few days.

This was the annual Spring Tea of the Parent-Teacher Association of one of our Auburn schools. At the invitation of the principal, I attended and witnessed a fine display of esprit de corps on the part of school officials, teachers, parents, and students.

Engagements

Coming—Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hall have announced the engagement of Mrs. Hall's daughter, Miss Joanne Marie Beach, to William F. Gill, son of William A. Gill and the late Mrs. Gill.
