Bishop Kearney Scheduled In First Friday Address

His Excellency Bishop Kearney will speak to members of the First Friday Luncheon Club in Sheraton Hotel, Friday, June 4 at the season beginning at 12:15 (noon).

Former state chaplain of the Knights of Columbus and instrumental in founding of the First Friday Luncheon Club, Bishop Kearney has made it a practice to be present for the December and June meetings of the club.

Because the Feast of the Sacred Heart comes in June and of the club's devotion, the Bishop is always the June speaker, the Rev. Raymond G. Hesel, club moderator and Chaplain of the Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus said today.

All Catholic laymen who receive Holy Communion on the First Friday are eligible to attend the luncheon meeting. Arrangements are in charge of Urban G. Kress, former chairman who is taking over because Lawrence V. Driscoll, this year's chairman is in Europe.

John Fisher Club Elects New Board Of Officers

St. John Fisher Club held elections Thursday, May 20 at its final dinner meeting of the season at Sacred Heart Cathedral school hall.

Kenneth G. Knox was elected president and Walter Kalb, vice president. Re-elected to the office of secretary was Miss Rita Conestable. Miss Marie Gudenis filled the treasurer's position and Walter Trabold was chosen advisor. The new officers will be installed on Sunday, June 20 at the Sheraton Hotel.

Gardner Wales, outgoing president, congratulated the new officers and thanked the club for the cooperation and interest they had shown during the past year. MORE THAN 100 members and guests were present for the elections and heard Special Agent Mark Tuboy of the FBI talk on "The Work of the FBI." "Cooperation," said Mr. Tuboy, "is synonymous with an ef-

Knights Of St. John Units Mark Marian Year On Campus

Rochester units of the Knights of St. John and Ladies Auxiliaries held a solemn Marian Year Observance on Sunday, May 23, on the grounds of Nazareth College.

UNIFORMED UNITS of the Knights and Ladies formed a Living Rosary before a temporary outdoor altar erected on the campus. The Knights formed the chain, with the Ladies representing the beads, and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph E. Gelfo, chaplain of the Rochester Regiment, led the recitation of the Rosary.

Mass celebrated by Msgr. Gelfo followed the Rosary. Appropriate hymns were sung by the assemblage, led by the combined voices of the Nazareth College Choir and the Glee Club of St. John Fisher College. The Rev. Louis J. Hoffman gave a discourse on the "Blessed Mother" after the Mass.

IN PROCESSION the Knights and Ladies were led by the Aquinas Institute Band under the direction of Raymond J. Hasenauer of the school's faculty. Representing the groups in charge of arrangements were the Reverend Mother Helene of the Sisters of St. Joseph, Col. Emil G. Eckert, Lt. Col. John C. Blitner, A.D.C., Charles J. Keller, Past Col. A. G. Miller, Mrs. Carrie Foster, Camilla Haszlawer, Loretta Kassman and Helen Blitner.
