

St. Anthony Novena Slated

The annual Solemn Novena in honor of St. Anthony will be celebrated at Our Lady of Victory Church beginning Saturday, June 5 and concluding on the feast of St. Anthony, Sunday, June 13.

The Rev. Henry Creighton, S.S.C.C. will lead the devotion which will begin nightly at 8 p. m. Novena prayers will also be recited daily at the 12:15 Mass for those who are unable to attend the evening devotions. St. Anthony's Bread will be available each day during the Novena. This blessed bread will be found at St. Anthony's Shrine in the front of the church.

EACH DAY during the Novena, a Holy Mass will be offered for the special intentions of those attending the devotions. This Novena is held each year at Our Lady of Victory Church in a spirit of thanksgiving for the many favors obtained during the year from Almighty God through the intercession of St. Anthony.

Frank A. Walz Rites Conducted At Holy Redeemer

Funeral services for Frank A. Walz, 82, of 992 North St., Rochester, were held Tuesday, June 2, at Menges Funeral Home and Holy Redeemer Church. Interment was in Holy Sepulcher Cemetery.

Mr. Walz, who died May 29, 1954, was a trustee at Holy Redeemer Church since 1925 and was active in the Holy Name Society. He held office in the Knights of Columbus and in 1950 led a family rosary service broadcast by Station WSAY with 60 members of his family taking part. He sang in Holy Redeemer Church choir for more than 40 years.

From 1908 till 1943, he was employed by Yawman and Erbe and during the latter part of WW II, he came out of retirement to do war work for a son, Herman J. Walz, secretary-treasurer of Walz and Krenzer, Inc.

Another son, the Rev. Frederick Walz of Kings Ferry and Ludlowville, celebrated the Solemn High Mass at Holy Redeemer Church Tuesday at 10 a. m. A nephew, the Rev. Michael Walz, served as deacon. The Rev. Francis Kleehammer was subdeacon.

SURVIVING BESIDES his wife and sons, Herman and Frederick, are six other sons, Joseph, Edmund, Francis, John, Paul and Albert; four daughters, Mrs. Edward Hahn, Mrs. Harry Clark, Mrs. Louis Mayer and Mrs. Bernard Rehberg; 37 grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Present in the sanctuary at the Solemn High Mass were His Excellency Bishop Kearney who imparted the final absolution, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William Stauder, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Max Walz, a nephew, and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. George W. Eckel.

Also present were the Reverend Fathers Raymond Wahl, William J. Schifferl, Ralph J. Meyer, Francis J. Hoefen, Francis M. Feeney, Frank Valukewicz, Charles Azil, Bernard V. Kuchman, Raymond G. Heisel, Albert Geiger, John Heiges, John W. LeVogus, Albert J. Nettl, Matthew Puldero, Robert Fennessy, Francis Vogt, George Vogt, Eugene Golding, and Chester Kloczek.

Family Day On Campus Set By Aquinas Men's Club

The Men's Club of Aquinas is planning the last big event of the school year, a Family Day, to be held on Sunday, June 13. The affair, which last year drew some 2,000 people to the school's back campus, will include a Spaghetti Dinner.

A dance, games, races, movies, a band concert are among the other things planned for the day. A general meeting of the various committees was held the first of June and further plans were made. John W. Degus, General Chairman and Tom Lynch, president, will head the preparations.

Michael Moynihan and Frank Biondi will see to the donations, while Pat Farrell directs publicity. Joseph Connolly heads the Purchasing Committee.

A. Burchard has the Prize Committee and Harold Dorsey the Finance Committee.

TICKETS for the meal will be one dollar for adults and fifty cents for children. Also to go on sale soon are pre-arranged tickets for the various games and refreshments. They will be ten cents apiece or twelve for one dollar.

Plans are also being made to honor and to present to those on hand Jim Welch and Mary Ann Ranney, Jim, by a special operation some six months ago, gave part of the bone of his leg to Mary Ann. The operation was a success and they both are to be recognized.

Mothers' Club Plans Children's Fete

Mothers' Club of Holy Apostles School is planning a breakfast for the children of the parish, reserving their First Holy Communion on June 5 and 13.

Mrs. John Erb and Mrs. Wesley Miller are co-chairmen, assisted by the Mesdames: Frank Thomas, Marian Erb, Samuel Brognia, William Embury, Joseph Mangola, Martin Lofblondo, John Vell Neuge, Charles Thomas and Joseph A. Camello.

GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

Never stop to thank God for His blessings. Think for a moment how confused and bewildered your life would be if you were without the faith! This blessing alone overweighs all trials. St. Paul was the victim of ceaseless persecutions and yet he begins all his epistles with such words as: "I thank my God always on your behalf."

On the other hand, note how much pessimism is the modern mood. A weary feeling fills many minds that the problems of life are insurmountable, and that despair is inevitable. We would probably despair too, if the only hope there was for international peace was the United Nations, if the only basis for inner peace was the couch of the psychoanalyst.

Thank God a dozen times a day for your blessings, but also do something more. If a friend gave you a new automobile, would you not send him a gift in thanksgiving? Since God has given you His Redemption, His Eucharist, His Life, why not give Him a gift the 1,400,000 pagans in the world might know Him as you do and maybe even love Him more than you do. Every time you discover a new blessing in your life make a new sacrifice in thanksgiving. You will be amazed how your blessings will multiply.

We will soon be telling you how to remember our new address, so please keep saving your pennies!

GOD LOVE YOU to A. K. "The enclosed $5 is what I would have spent on a new Easter hat, but I decided that my old one would do just as well." . . . to F. K. B. "I have promised to send a percentage of every painting I sell to the Missions. Here is my first check for $3.50" . . . to P. E. "Now that Life is not Worth Living on Tuesday nights, since your most wonderful series on television is absent, here is a small sum of $10 to help make Life Worth Living in your far-aided missions." . . . to V. H. for $68. "This check represents 50% of my overtime which I promised for a special request." . . . to J. W. V. for $24.50 "Although I am not a Catholic, each month I try to send this amount to the Catholic Missions because I believe that you are helping them as they should be helped."

Wouldn't you like to be one in a million? You can by subscribing to Mission. Edited by the author of this column, the Most Rev. Fulton J.
