SETS CONCERT AT ST. JOHN'S

Gerald Vogt Slates Concert On New St. John's Organ

Gerald Vogt, organist at Old St. Mary's Church, Rochester will give a concert of sacred music on the new organ at St. Johns Church, Greece on Wednesday, June 16 at 8 p.m.

The new Moller pipe organ was recently installed at a cost of $4,000, of which the Rosary Society contributed $1,500 and the balance met by the parishioners.

The Rev. Donald E. Lux, pastor of St. John's, says the new organ replaces one acquired several years ago from Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral.

St. John's parish choir is composed of high school students with Miss Anne Polle as organist.

Mr. Vogts organ concert will include the following compositions:

Solemn Prelude on Veni Creator Spiritus by Candi Van Hulse; Fugue in E Flat by J. S. Bach; Symphonic Choral: Remain with Thy Grace, Lord Jesus by Sigfrid Karg-Elert; Toccata on a Gregorian Theme by E. S. Barnes.

Holy Family Theatre Banquet Features Awards, New Officers

Fifth annual banquet of Rochester's Holy Family Theatre was held on Thursday evening, May 27 in the Pine Room.

A check for $2,000 was presented by the group to the Rev. George J. Schmitt, pastor for the use of the church. Priests of the parish were honored guests with over 100 members present.

Awards were presented to Martha Schur, Rita Tota and Ella Russell for their "behind-the-scenes" work during the past five years. All have been with the theatre group since its inception and have worked on every play.

MARTHA SCHUR has designed and executed nearly 1,000 costumes. Rita Tota has been active in every phase of show business, both on and off the Holy Family stage. Publicity for the theatre has been handled by Ella Russell.

Election of officers took place after a brief business meeting. Inez Paskal replaced Winnifred McLaughlin as corresponding secretary, Clayton Cody replaced Clarence Dentinger as vice president and June Sturtevant replaced Helen Schramel as treasurer.

The Rev. E. Charles Bauer, moderator of the Holy Family Theatre, commended each of the outgoing officers for their work of the past two years and gifts were presented as mementos of their service to the group.

DECORATIONS designed by Miss Paskal in the "State Fair" motif highlighted the tables. Clayton Cody was toastmaster and Joe Snyder led the group singing.

Announcement of a play planned for next November was made and those interested signed for auditions.

Mission Labors In Red China Recounted By City Nun

After nearly twenty years in China and Korea, two of which were under the Communists, Sister Mary Magdalena Urlacher, Maryknoll missioner nun, returned last week for a visit to her native Rochester.

From 1949 to 1951, Sister Magdalena lived under the Communist regime in South China, the last half year with armed guards. She was then expelled and went to Korea to join a medical team of Maryknoll Sisters which then was beginning work among the refugees pouring into Pusan.

IN THE FOLLOWING two years, while the Korean War raged, Sister Magdalena's labor at the Maryknoll Sisters' Clinic bordered on the heroic. Two thousand patients a day were cared for at the clinic—"perhaps the longest charity line in the world," said the Army newspaper, "Stars and Stripes."

SISTER MAGDALENA

Sister was stationed in the children's clinic where starving babies, children with tuberculosis of the bone and severe malnutrition cases were common.

A year ago, Sister Magdalena returned to Hong Kong. Here, among other duties, she made daily visits to Kwong Wah hospital where babies of Chinese refugees are cared for. Again, the small victims of war were her constant occupation.

SISTER MAGDALENA is the former Miss Catherine Urlacher of Our Lady of Perpetual Help parish. A graduate of Perpetual Help school and Nazareth Academy, Rochester, she trained as a nurse in the Providence Hospital School of Nursing in Seattle, Wash.

Ill health necessitated Sister's return to the United States for a short period and resulted in a visit to her Rochester home on Chimayo St. with her brothers John and George Urlacher. She hopes to return to Hong Kong in a few months.

Old Regime

Gentlemen of the old regime in South used to say: "A woman's name should appear in print but twice—when she marries and when she dies." Calhoun.

Activities Set By Youth Unit

St. John Bosco Club will meet at St. Francis of Assisi Church to pray the Rosary for Peace on Thursday, June 17. The leader of the Rosary this month will be our new treasurer, Robert Rubright. Cars will leave Holy Rosary parking lot at 6:30 p.m. for those who wish to attend. All are welcome.

On Sunday, June 20, a picnic is planned at the west cabin in Churchville Park. Cars will leave from No. 7 playground at 11 a.m. Refreshments, games and dancing will round out the days activities. Price $1.25. Make your reservation early.

On Sunday, June 27 a Communion Breakfast will be held in the school hall, immediately following the 10 a.m. Mass. A short business meeting will follow the breakfast.

Reservations may be made with one of the following, Loretta Bernardo, GLenwood 1078-R, Betty Jane Carges, GLenwood 5166-J, Catherine Gordinier, GLenwood 1704-R, Daniel Kinney, GLenwood 6854-M, Thomas Leicht, GLenwood 2316-R, Marion Meskill, GLenwood 4552-M, and Robert Rubright, GLenwood 5680-J.
