DeSales High Grads Hear Value Of Love

Geneva—The Rev. Edward K. Ball, V.F., pastor of St. Francis de Sales Church and dean of the Ontario, Seneca and Yates Deanery, delivered the commencement address Sunday, June 27 to graduates of DeSales High School. Present at the ceremony was the Very Rev. Msgr. John E. Maney, newly-appointed chancellor of the diocese and an alumnus of De Sales.

Father Ball said that there is no room for hate or bitterness in the heart of the truly great man. He described the formula of success of an old priest who was beloved of his parishioners. Quoting a remark of "I love my people whether they love me or not, and I serve them whether they serve me or not."

FATHER BALL expressed congratulations to the school principal, the Rev. Joseph L. Hogan, S.T.D., for the success of the class; to the Rev. Raymond P. Nolan, pastor of St. Stephen's Church; the school faculty; the parents, and particularly to the graduates.

Miss Martha Sullivan, salutatorian, presented as her subject "Mary's Role in the Modern World," focusing attention on the observance of the Marian Year. Graduates were then presented and honors were announced by Dr. Hogan, after which Father Ball presented diplomas to members of the class of 1954.

Miss Faith Morabito, valedictorian of the class, had for her topic "What Now For Eternity?"

AWARDS PRESENTED during Commencement were: religion prize, Knights of Columbus Fourth Degree; Carolyn Djansezian, New York; Memorial prize in memory of St. John De Gule, Science, Carolyn Djansezian; in memory of Charles Dhall, highest average for boys, Donald Ninestine; in memory of Edwin Lev, history, Faith Morabito; Mary C. Cowan memorial, team.

FATHER FENNESSY addressed the graduates and presented the diplomas and awards with the assistance of the Rev. John Murphy of Seneca.

Dr. William T. Shanahan Memorial Award for the highest average in regents examinations was won by Mary, Katherine Beaudin and William A. LaBarbara who each had an average of 96.25%. Samuel Annalora was second with an average of 95.75%. The award for the highest percent in the Citizen Education was also equally won by Mary Beaudin and William LaBarbara who earned a 93%.

THE MISTRESS won the award given by Danville Council, Knights of Columbus for being 100% in the Christian Doctrine examination. Several other students in the school also earned 100% in the examination but Miss Mistretta won in the drawing.

"Rosine Bonadonna" was presented the award given for the best student in school activities. Members of the class were among the large number of students who received a prize for perfect attendance at school during the past year. They were William B. Barbra, Joseph Cioero, Samuel Annalora and Rosie Bonadonna. All the boys in the class of 1954 were presented an award for faithful service as altar boys.

OFFICERS OF the class of 1954 are as follows: Sam Annalora, president; Anthony Bonadonna, vice-president; Jane Battaglia, treasurer; and Patricia Murphy, secretary.

The 15 members of the class attended the 10 a.m. Mass at St. Patrick's Church and received Holy Communion in a body. A Communion breakfast at the school followed Mass.

Canandaigua Lists Stock Car Rivalry
Canandaigua, N. Y.—Irish Windstorm cost Rochester's Lee Bills and Penn Yan's Dutch Hoag a chance to renew their stock car rivalry at Ontario County Fairgrounds last week, but both boys will be back again in action Sunday afternoon and a real battle is in prospect.
