Bandages Rolled To Aid Missions

7 St. Ambrose Girls Give Aid To Missions

Helping the Missions is a vacation project entered into wholeheartedly by seven girls on Kiniry Drive in St. Ambrose Parish.

The girls' meeting at the home of Anne Weidner, 84 Kiniry Drive, roll bandages and cut pictures for scrapbooks to be sent to the missionaries. Their goal is 400 pounds of bandages and their parents say that by the looks of the production line, they will "surely make it."

ALTHOUGH WORKING for two hours each day, they have fun at the same time with singing, telling jokes and reading the cookie jars.

The Indian Missions will benefit by the present undertaking, it is reported, and the girls are offering this project during the Marian Year in honor of Our Lady.

Participating are: Judy Valastro, Kathy Ritz, Marilyn and Elaine Oeschger, Madelyn Bonke, Gail Angelo and Anne Weidner.

Father Malley Receives Doctorate Degree In Rome

Rev. Eugene R. Malley, C.S.B., a native of Rochester, received his doctorate in theology at the Angelicum, Rome, in June, according to The Canadian Register.

REV. EUGENE MALLEY

Son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James E. Malley, he was born in Rochester in 1924, attended Aquinas Institute before entering St. Basil's Novitiate in Rochester where he was professed on Oct. 10, 1943.

FATHER MALLEY attended St. Michael's College in Toronto where he received his bachelor of arts degree in 1948. In Sept. of that year he entered St. Basil's Seminary, and was ordained to the Holy Priesthood by His Eminence, James Charles Cardinal McGuigan in June of 1951. He offered his First Solemn Mass in St. Augustine's Church, Rochester on July 1, 1951.

After receiving his degree of master of arts in Spanish from the University of Toronto in 1952, Father Malley went to Rome to study Sacred Theology at the Angelicum while residing at the Canadian Pontifical College.

Stony Brook Picnic Set By Fisher Club

St. John Fisher Club of Sacred Heart Parish will hold an all day outing to Stony Brook State Park on Sunday, July 11. Members will attend 8 a.m. Mass at the Cathedral, followed by breakfast in the school hall.

Following breakfast chartered buses will take the group to the park. Dinner and supper will be served there with a well-rounded program of activities scheduled throughout the day.

An outing was held last Sunday to Hamlin Beach State Park and another outing was held on Monday to Fairhaven State Park.

Villa Game Listed For S.H. Cub Nine

A team representing Cub Pack 68 of Sacred Heart Cathedral will meet a nine from St. Joseph's Villa in baseball at the Villa, Tuesday, July 20 at 6:30 p.m.

The Cubs team has been practicing at Aquinas Institute under the tutelage of John Ruch for several weeks and are out to give the Villa team a strong competition.

Veterans To War On Lewd Comics

Two Monroe County veterans groups have opened campaigns against indecent literature it was announced this week. The Monroe County Council, Veterans of Foreign Wars will open a county-wide battle after successful campaigning by Culver Post 2691 V.F.W. The County American Legion posts opened their campaign on Tuesday at the 40 & S. Club, University Ave.

Both groups cited the lurid comics, magazines and pocket-size books as demoralizing American youth.

The VFW campaigners are being guided by the National Organization for Clean Literature directed by Archbishop John F. Noll and will use its list of disapproved publications.

Members of both groups will call on merchants and seek their cooperation in banning the sale of unclean and lurid literature for children.

Chairmen Named For Exhibition

John F. Burke and Harry B. Crowley have been named chairman and honorary chairman respectively of the professional football exhibition charity football game scheduled at the Aquinas Stadium on Sept. 1, according to Andrew Knauf, grand knight of Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus.

This year the Pittsburgh Steelers and Philadelphia Eagles are scheduled to appear. Burke is a graduate of St. Michael's College in Vermont and of the University of Notre Dame Law School.

Burke said that he would appoint committees for the game next week.
