

Manila Prelate Visits Rochester

Manila Archbishop Lauds New Regime In Philippines

By PAUL CONTESTABLE

Despite the nearness of the Philippines to China and other Communist countries, Archbishop Rufino Santos of the Archdiocese of Manila on a visit to Rochester this week voiced strong faith in the leadership of President Ramon Magsaysay, Nationalist Democratic leader of the Republic.

"Our six years of democratic independence have brought us some satisfaction in home rule. These beginnings were slow and difficult, but we have learned much," the prelate said. Popular confidence in President Magsaysay was shown in his election by a tremendous majority, the Archbishop said. "He has a great heart for the people and he is for the people in every way."

"The greatest comfort and courage the Filipinos have," he continued, "is their Catholic faith and their devotion to the Blessed Mother." The Catholic character of 90% of the population is a major barrier to Communism, he claimed.

The 400-year-old history of Our Lady's influence in the islands is shown by the nightly rosary program from Manila which reaches every island and almost every city of the archipelago in a modern approach toward unifying the people in prayer.

THE GRACIOUS, young Archbishop is returning to the Philippines from Rome and other parts of Europe where he viewed the canonization rites last month. In the Archbishop's party are three Filipino priests and two laywomen of the Manila diocese and his sister and a companion. While in Rochester, Archbishop Santos was the guest of the Rt. Rev. Msgr. F. William Stauder, pastor of Holy Redeemer Church. He was escorted to Rochester by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph R. Koch, former Rochesterian and a chaplain in the U.S. Army gram over WHAM in November, 1950, the Bishop discussed Catholic action in the Philippines and the slow work of rebuilding war-damaged churches and schools. He told the diocesan listening audience that American generosity was the chief factor in the Church's reconstruction. Six Maryknoll nuns returned to Lipa with him to open a new girls' academy for the diocese.

At that time the Bishop stated that Communism was losing its hold in the Philippines as the people find employment, housing and financial aid from the new government.

UPON THE DEATH of Archbishop Gabriel M. Reyes on Oct. 14, 1952, the Manila Prelate was named Apostolic Administrator of the Archdiocese of Manila. In December of that year he was appointed Archbishop of Manila, and he was installed on March 25, 1953.

Archbishop Santos expressed appreciation to the many people who have made his brief stay in the U.S. so enjoyable.

How To Make Marian Year Pilgrimage

"How can I make a Marian year pilgrimage—I have neither the time nor the money for a long trip?" No doubt many of us have asked this question during the past few months. But all of us can and should make pilgrimages during this Marian year.

A Marian year pilgrimage need not be an expensive nor a time-consuming venture. Most of us are within walking distance of a church where a plenary indulgence may be gained. A plenary conditions may be met as follows:

Rochester—Church of the Annunciation, Holy Rosary, Immaculate Conception, Our Lady of Good Counsel, Our Lady of Lourdes, Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Our Lady of Victory, Our Mother of Sorrows, St. Mary, and Star of the Sea Chapel.

Auburn—St. Mary; Bath, St. Mary; Brockport, Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary; Bushnell, Bath, Immaculate Heart of Mary; Cananadaga, St. Mary; Corning, St. Mary; Danville, St. Mary.

Elmira—Our Lady of Lourdes, St. Mary; Falport, Assumption; Genesee, St. Mary; Honeoye, St. Mary; Horseheads, St. Mary; Ithaca, Immaculate Conception; King Ferry, Our Lady of the Lake; Mt. Morris, Assumption.

indulgence may be gained under the following conditions:

1. UPON FULFILLMENT of Confession, Communion, and prayer for the Pope's intentions as often as a pilgrimage is made in a group to any of the churches listed below on any Saturday of the Marian year.
2. After confessions and Communion, as often as they visit these same churches and pray for the intentions of the Holy Father on certain feast days—August 15 (Assumption), September 8 (Nativity of the B.V.M.), September 15 (Seven Dolors), and December 8, the closing day of the Marian year.
3. After Confession, Communion, and prayer for the Pope's intentions to any person who devoutly attends any sacred ceremony celebrated in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary. If they attend with only a contrite heart (without Confession and Communion) they can gain an indulgence of ten years.
4. AT ANY UNUSUAL shrine where the Blessed Virgin is given singular veneration and which generally attracts large and distant pilgrimages this spiritual favor is granted in addition to those mentioned above. The faithful may gain a plenary indulgence not only on Saturdays, but also on all other days of the Marian year provided that they have gone to Confession and Communion and devoutly visit the shrine and pray for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff.

Two churches in Rochester are included in this category—St. Joseph's and St. Francis of Assisi. St. Joseph's Church is considered in this category because of the special devotions to Our Lady of Perpetual Help, and St. Francis of Assisi Church because of the Family Radio Rosary for Peace.

CONFESION may be fulfilled on the day itself or eight days previous to or eight days after the visit in any of the above cases. Communion may be received on the day of the visit, or the day before, or eight days after the visit. One Confession and one Communion is sufficient to gain many indulgences. Father Hogan Reappointed KC Chaplain Geneva—Dr. Joseph Hogan, principal of De Sales high school, has been reappointed chaplain of Geneva Council, Knights of Columbus according to Michael J. McDonald, grand knight.

Appointment of Chris DeWall as financial secretary replacing William L. Cosgrove, was also announced. DeWall is custodian of the K of C Home.

Dr. Hogan, who came to DeSales as principal last year, was appointed K of C chaplain shortly thereafter. While he is not head of the council, he is recognized as first officer.

A native of Lima, Dr. Hogan was educated in Lima schools and at St. Andrews and St. Bernard Seminaries in Rochester. He went to Rome, Italy, where he obtained his doctorate degree, afterwards teaching in St. John Fisher College in Rochester. He came from there last year to succeed the Rev. Raymond J. Nolan as DeSales principal.

Grang-Knight McDonald said he is now preparing a group of committees to serve the council during the coming year. They will be announced soon.

Faith On Increase

Montreal—(NC)—Catholicity is on the upsurge in Peru, according to Father Georges Piriou, provincial of the Fathers of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary. Father Piriou visited houses of his community in Canada following his recent visit to community houses in Peru.

Public To Join With Monks In Celebrating Assumption

The Very Rev. Damasus Winzen, O.S.B., Prior of the Benedictine Monastery of Mount Saviour, Madigan Road, Elmira, has announced that plans are already under way for the celebration of the Feast of the Assumption of Our Lady, Sunday, Aug. 15.

Our Lady, under the title of Her Assumption, is the chief patron of the monastery. Father Winzen said. The triduum feast of the monastery occurs on Aug. 6, Feast of the Transfiguration.

Last year the Feast of the Assumption marked the blessing of the new octagonal shaped chapel at Mount Saviour dedicated to Our Lady Queen of Peace.

A large number of friends of the community from near and far came to spend the day at the monastery, witnessing the blessing ceremonies and taking part in the services from Mass in the morning until Vespers in the late afternoon.

FOR THE CONVENIENCE of the visitors, many of the men and women of the locality finished food which could be purchased on the premises. It was decided that each year the friends of Mount Saviour would like to take part in the celebration of this great feast in this same manner: providing food for those attending the ceremonies and raising funds for the benefit of the community.

Women of the St. Scholastica League will cooperate with Nicholas Cavalluzzi and other men of the vicinity to provide refreshments. Co-chairmen of this food committee are: Mrs. John T. Cloke, Mrs. Francis L. Rohde, Mrs. Anthony Rossi, Mrs. Louis Winicki, and Miss Babe Crowley of Elmira and Mrs. Henry Cece of Corning.

COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN planning booths for the sale of handmade articles and other items are as follows: Mrs. Frank A. Bellgotti, Mrs. John J. Diveny, Mrs. George Cinelli and Mrs. Harold W. Fisher.

High Mass will be at 9 a.m. on Sunday, Aug. 15, and Vespers and Benediction will be at 2 p.m. Father Winzen will be the celebrant at the Mass and will deliver the sermon. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

Mount Saviour Receives Gift From Knights

Announcement has just been made of the gift to Mount Saviour Monastery by the Fourth Degree Assembly, Knights of Columbus, Elmira, of two wrought iron candlesticks for the Chapel of Our Lady-Queen of Peace.

The candlesticks were received last week at the monastery after one of the pair had been exhibited at a meeting of the Fourth Degree Assembly.

The candlesticks, designed and made by Anthony Ekes of Elmira to match a lectern which he has previously designed for the monastery, stands 5' high and are placed either side of the sanctuary in back of the altar.

Each candlestick bears a brass plate with the inscription: "Queen of Peace Pray for the Fourth Degree Assembly, Knights of Columbus."

SPIRITUAL EXERCISES AT THE CENACLE

August schedule of spiritual exercises for women at the Cenacle Convent, 693 East Avenue, Rochester follows:

RETREATS August 11 and 12—Children, 12 and 13 years of age. Rev. James Redmond, S.J., retreat master. August 15 to August 21—at 10 a.m. Rev. John Louis Bonn, S.J., retreat master. August 27 to 29—High School Girls Retreat.

FEATURES SWIMMING POOL

CHILDREN of the Dryden area are shown above at the outdoor swimming pool of George Junior Republic, Essexville, during a period of supervised play at the annual Religious Vacation School. The two-week semester is under the direction of two Sisters of St. Joseph. The Vacation School is sponsored by the Dryden Catholic Mission and will culminate on Aug. 1, with the reception of First Holy Communion by 22 of the children. The Rev. Thomas K. Cleary is administrator.

Dryden Vacation School Held At George Junior Republic

Essexville—The annual Religious Vacation School at George Junior Republic conducted by the Dryden Catholic Mission opened Monday, July 19 for a period of two weeks.

The school is under the direction of Sister Mary Leonard, S.S.J., of St. Patrick's Church, Corning, and Sister Adrianna, S.S.J., of St. Anthony's Church, Rochester.

Three lay teachers, Mrs. James Bedell and Miss Carol LeBonte of Ithaca, and Mrs. Kellogg Baldwin of Dryden, are assisting the nuns with the teaching.

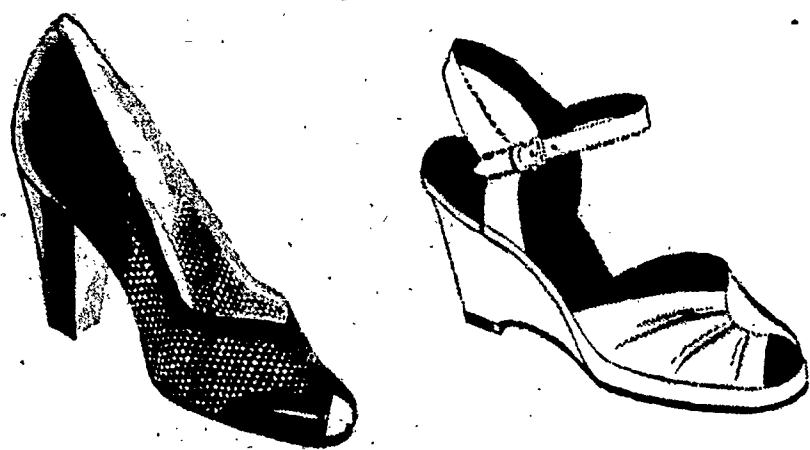

ALL CHILDREN in the first through eighth grades belonging to the parish are invited to the school, and approximately 115 boys and girls from the area are in attendance each day. Volunteer drivers from the parish furnish transportation.

The program consists of religious education and supervised play, including swimming, from 9 a.m. until 12 noon daily. Twenty-two of the children will receive their First Holy Communion at the 8:30 Mass on Aug. 1. All of the children will participate in the singing of hymns.

THE VACATION SCHOOL will officially close on the afternoon of Aug. 1 with the annual parish family picnic to be held on the grounds at George Junior Republic.

According to Father Cleary, there will be swimming for all, games and contests for the children, and a picnic supper.
