Immaculate Teen-Age Dances Plan Gala September Opening

Large crowds of teenagers have been attending the weekly Friday Nite Dances at the Immaculate Conception Auditorium, Rochester, during the Summer vacation period. Music for dancing is furnished by Joe Nolan and his twelve piece orchestra. Special numbers for the high school set have been arranged by Johnny Vetter and Charles Monachino.

A new parking area has been installed at the entrance of the auditorium to take care of the many cars on Friday evenings.

PLANS ARE being made for the opening of the Fall season of dances. Opening date will be the first Friday of the school year, Sept. 10. Miss Laurie Robbins of Station WVEV-TV will be the guest soloist and three orchestras will play for dancing. Alternating dance tunes with Joe Nolan, the orchestra of Johnny Vetter and Reggie Allen of West High School, will be heard.

Msgr. Krieg, Father Lintz To Be Honored By Parish

The Rev. Msgr. Michael J. Krieg, pastor emeritus, and the Rev. Dr. Edward J. Lintz, pastor, of the Church of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Brockport, will be honored at a testimonial and reception on Tuesday, Aug. 10.

The parishioners are holding the gathering in Bolger Hall from 8 to 10 p.m. It will be the first public function since Dr. Lintz was appointed pastor two months ago and will also serve as a tribute to Monsignor Krieg, who resigned after serving nearly 37 of his 52 years in the Holy Priesthood at Brockport.

A native of Rochester, Monsignor Krieg is a graduate of St. Patrick's School and St. Andrew's and St. Bernard's Seminaries. He was ordained at the St. Patrick's Cathedral in 1902 by Bishop Bernard J. McQuaid, first Bishop of Rochester.

He was stationed at the Cathedral and at Industry, Livonia Center and Ontario before going to Brockport.

Dr. Lintz is a graduate of Canisius College and received his master of arts degree from the University of Rochester. He attended St. Bernard's Seminary and was ordained in Fribourg, Switzerland, in 1938. While there, he earned his doctorate in philosophy at the University of Fribourg.

For the past 14 years he has been head of the philosophy department at Nazareth College and, in addition, has served in various educational and administrative capacities in this area.

The parish committee has extended an invitation to the many friends of both priests to be present at Tuesday's testimonial reception.

St. Alphonsus Youth Dies Suddenly At Camp Columbus

Auburn—Thomas Vatter, 15, son of Patrolman and Mrs. Clarence A. Vatter, of 16 Francis Street died suddenly on Friday evening, July 30 at Camp Columbus on Owassow Lake where he was a junior counselor.

Death due to natural causes was the decision of the Cayuga County coroner.

The Rev. Frederick G. Straub, pastor of St. Alphonsus Church, and chairman of the board of directors of Camp Columbus, Inc. said that Thomas was sitting on the kitchen steps when Father Straub arrived at the camp on Friday evening. A few minutes later the boy toppled over and was pronounced dead by a physician who was at a cottage next to Camp Columbus. Father Straub administered the last rites of the church.

A huskily-built youth, Thomas had been reported in perfect health and had been working at the camp for the past five weeks. He would have returned home next week at the conclusion of the boys' camping period. A junior at West High School, young Vatter was a member of the Auburn High School track, football and wrestling squads. He also played with the West High All-Star basketball team.

He was treasurer of the Class of 1956 at West and deputy chief scout of Auburn Circle 112, Columbian Squires of St. Alphonsus Parish and a member of the Holy Name Society.

Surviving besides his parents are a brother, Pfc. Anton V. Vatter in the Fleet Marine Corps at Camp Lejeune, N. C.; his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Vatter of Auburn, and several aunts and uncles.

The funeral took place Tuesday with a Solemn Mass of Requiem at St. Alphonsus Church and interment in St. Joseph's Cemetery.

Double Wedding Held In Livonia Center Church

Corning—The Rev. John P. Weloch, former pastor of St. Mary's Church in this city, performed a double wedding Monday, July 26 in St. Michael's Church at Livonia Center. The brides for the double church ceremony are both popular Corningites.

Miss Gertrude M. Marx of 181 W. Putney St., Corning daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Augustine W. Marx, became the bride of Raymond J. Gill of Cayuga, N. Y., son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Gill.

The other bride was Miss Mary Ann Gill daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Gill of 214 W. Third St., Corning. The bridegroom was Lawrence P. Connelly, Jr. of Rochester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence P. Connelly of Elmira.

Each couple in turn acted as attendants for the other at the moment prior to the nuptial Mass. Mrs. Gill is a graduate of both St. Mary's Parochial School and Corning Free Academy. Her husband attended Corning schools and is with the Texas Company, New York City. Mr. and Mrs. Gill will make their future home in Bayonne, New Jersey.

Mrs. Connelly is a graduate of St. Mary's Parochial School, Corning, Free Academy and St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing. She is a registered nurse and has been employed at Corning Hospital.

Mr. Connelly attended Elmira schools and is employed with the Daw Drug Co. in Rochester. This couple plan to reside at 10 Harvard Street, Rochester.
