Promoter Ed Otto sends his speed demon stock race to the post for the 12th time Friday night at Monroe County Fairgrounds and they'll be sharing honors with a group of cars from yesterday.

A line-up of Henry Ford's most popular car, the Model T, will attempt to prove a 30-year-old vehicle can still get around in a special event that promises laughs and excitement.

The show will get underway at 8:15 and the feature 20-lap stock race will be preceded by three 8-lap heats, two 10-lap semifinals and a 10-lap consolation event.

Baseball Hall Of Fame Adds Klem, Maranville

The late Bill Klem and the late Walter V. (Rabbit) Maranville, were among three to whom plaques were dedicated in the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y. on Monday. Both had connections with Rochester.

Klem who served as an umpire in the National League for 36 years before retiring was a native of Rochester and resided in the Holy Apostles-Holy Family parishes section.

Maranville came here to play with Rochester in 1927 before going to the Cardinals and made his home here for several years. He once wrote a series on baseball for the Catholic Courier Journal.

Tokyo University Lists Catholics

Tokyo — (NC) — The student body at the Jesuit-conducted Sophia University here numbers 2,128, of whom 746 are Catholics, according to latest statistics. The teaching staff of 87 has 33 Catholics, excluding Jesuit professors. Sixty-six Catholics were graduated this year as compared with two Catholics at the first commencement exercises of the university in 1918.

Immaculate Day Camp Closes

With Family Night Thursday

Six weeks of day camp held at the Immaculate Conception School Hall will come to a close with a Parents Night. The date has been set for Thursday, Aug. 19 at 8 p.m. At that time awards will be presented to the children in both the junior and senior groups.

The parents of the day campers will be given presents by the children. These gifts were made by each child during the craft periods.

A program of entertainment has been arranged. Songs and dances will be staged in addition to several skits depicting a typical day in camp.

Refreshments will be served by the counselors assisted by a Mothers committee.

Relatives and friends of the campers are invited to this official closing of the camping season.

Harps At Toronto For Key Game

Rochester Harps hurling team will travel to Toronto to play the Celts on Sunday, Aug. 15. A win for the local hurlers would put them in a position to take the league championship. The team is made up of Syracuse and Rochester players because of the lack of capable hurlers in each city.

Rochester's Pat Fogarty, a former Co. Tipperary player in his native Ireland, is captain. Included in the lineup from Rochester are Pat Markham, Bart Flannery, Pat and Bill O'Dea and Tom Hanley. Larry Healy, a standout in previous games is out with a broken arm received a few weeks ago in Buffalo.

Also scheduled is a Gaelic Football contest between the Rochester-Syracuse All-Stars and the Toronto Gaelic Football Club. Toronto has never been beaten since they were accepted into the Gaelic Athletic Association of America two years ago. Although this is not a league game it should provide quite a test to the champion Celts.

Representing Rochester on the team are: Mike Cuhane, Harry Sisson, Pat O'Dea, Gavin Duffy, Don Waters, Gene Reeners, Pat Reynolds.
