CARE Drive To Aid Vietnam Refugees

A pastoral letter by His Eminence Cardinal Spellman asking that prayers be offered for Vietnamese refugees at all Masses within the New York archdiocese has given added significance to the campaign being conducted by CARE for immediate aid to these war victims.

Cardinal Speliman's fastoral letter, based on information received from Bishops in Vietnam, stressed the enormous problems caused by the mass flight of civilians from North to South Vietnam to escape from the communist-led Vietminh.

Cabled reports received by CARE from its Far East regional director state that the number of 500,000 mark and is expected to of Salgon has already passed the people who fied before the communist aggressors to the vicinity double within the next several weeks. Approximately one third refugees are children under 14.
