New Dormitory

New Orleans — (NC) — Construction of a men's dormitory costing $678,000 will begin soon on the campus of Xavier University with completion expected within a year.

Secular Interests Divide Parishes, Educator States

Notre Dame—(NC)—The Catholic parish today is too often merely a Sunday congregation with a loyal core of week-day Church-goers, and as a social group it is more artificial than natural, a speaker said at the Conference on the Parish Apostolate held here.

Father Thomas J. Harte, professor of sociology at the Catholic University of America, Washington, D. C., asserted that the decreasing effectiveness of the Catholic parish in supplying the needs of the people is due largely to the "changed and changing structure of the parish as a social group."

He said common ideals, values and objectives formerly shared by parishioners have been divided by various secular interests. To restore parish unity, Father Harte recommended the size of parishes be reduced and that parish boundaries conform to the natural area of the community whenever possible. He also stressed the importance of lay apostolates within the parish.

To Direct

Ronald Pedrone has been appointed director of the first Catholic Theatre of Rochester production of the 1954-55 season, set for presentation in October. The play, "KG", is a new comedy about American prisoners of war in Germany during World War II. Sponsorship of the play is open to all groups and organizations wishing to take advantage of the theatre's profit-sharing plan.

'Pictures Of Christ Everywhere I Go'

Manila — (NC)— "Wherever I go, I see pictures of Christ—in small stores, in taxis, on walls—practically everywhere. It seems that Christ has taken over your city."

That was the comment of 26-year-old Chin Kwon Chang, Catholic Korean sailor, who visited here with the South Korean Navy.

Seaman Chang was struck by the friendly, Catholic atmosphere of the Philippines. In Korea, he explained, non-Catholics seem to think that Catholics are the "no-laugh, no-drink, no-marry" kind of people. This false idea of Catholics, he said, they deduce from the hard-working missionary priests and Sisters in their midst.

During their stay here, some 100 Catholic officers and seamen aboard the ROK ships attended Mass and received Holy Communion at the Catholic Welfare Organization chapel.

Spacing Plan Set For Parish Plants

Little Rock, Ark. — (RNS) — Parish churches and schools in the Catholic diocese of Little Rock are to be spaced at two-mile intervals so they will be available to all Catholic families in the area.

The plan was announced by Bishop Albert L. Fletcher of Little Rock who said that its purpose is "to give assurance to each Catholic family that they will be within one mile of a parish church or school."

Four building sites already have been purchased by the diocese and other selections are pending.

SEEK NEEDED POLIO FUNDS

Largest Retreat Center Expands

Philadelphia — (RNS)—The silence that is traditionally associated with a weekend at St. Joseph's-in-the-Hills," the world's largest Catholic men's retreat center at Malvern, was absent on the Feast of the Assumption.

Instead of the usual quota of 300 men for a quiet weekend of prayer and meditation, an estimated 15,000 to 20,000 persons attended the dedication of a new $800,000 dormitory, chapel and library.

The large tri-unit building is the sixth major addition to the 41-year-old retreat center, located on a secluded, 150-acre wooded tract 30 miles west of here.

Named "Our Lady's Hall" as a tribute to the Marian Year, it is regarded as one of the most important milestones in the history of the Catholic Laymen's Weekend Retreat movement. The movement has 22,000 "Men of Malvern" enrolled.

Jesuits' Bid For TV Channel Probed By FCC

New Orleans — (NC) — Loyola University has been ordered to outline any "control" the Society of Jesus or the Archdiocese of New Orleans would have over a television station the university has applied for.

A Federal Communications Commission examiner issued the order after station WMOE here, which is also applying for the TV channel, challenged the validity of the Jesuit university's control of the channel.

Father W. Patrick Donnelly, Loyola president, was ordered to set forth "the extent of control, if any, which has been, is now or would be exercised by the Society of Jesus or by the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of New Orleans over Loyola U., its officers or directors, insofar as such control relate in any manner whatsoever to the construction and operation of the proposed television station . . . "

Contestants for the TV channel had originally asked the FCC to investigate the world-wide scope of the Society of Jesus, including its educational and commercial interests, holding that the proposed television station would actually come under the control of the world-wide set-up.

Singer Lu Ann Sims Slated In Benefit Polio Program

A special "Polio Night" in connection with the emergency drive of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis will be held in cooperation with the Red Wings Ball Club at the Stadium in Rochester next Thursday night, Aug. 26, when the Wings play the Buffalo Bisons.

Announcement of the plan was made today by Betty Wehle, Vice-Chairman of the Monroe County Chapter.

HIGHLIGHTING A special program of entertainment on the occasion will be the first singing appearance locally of Rochester's Lu Ann Sims since she has risen to fame on the Arthur Godfrey radio and television shows.

Included in the entertainment which will take place on the field before the gace in addition to Miss Sims will be several variety vaudeville acts. An appeal for donations from fans in attendance will be made following the added program of entertainment.

IN ANNOUNCING thenight at the Stadium, Mrs. Wehle pointed out that this appeal for extra funds by the National Foundation has been made necessary because of the strain placed on the Foundation's funds by the gamma globulin and vaccine testing programs under which 625,000 American children have been vaccinated with the Salk vaccine this spring.

This is to be the sole appeal by the Monroe County Chapter during the emergency campaign for funds.

Marlowe's 'Faustus' Winds Up TV Series

Washington — (NC)— Christopher Marlowe's celebrated version of the legend of Faustus—the man who sold his soul to the devil—to be seen August 22, will be the final program in a series of four television productions of The Catholic Hour, it was announced.

Narrator for the program will be Frank Blair, news announcer on the NBC television show "Today," and former moderator of the Georgetown University Forum.

Holy Father Lauds Magsaysay On Faith

Manila, P. I.— (RNS) —Pope Pius XII sent a message to President Ramon Magsaysay of the Philippine Republic praising his "deep Catholic faith" and "admirable Christian piety."

The message was in reply to a greeting sent to the Pope by President Magsaysay on the occasion of the recent canonization of St. Pius X.

Pope Pius said that "the sentiments to which you gave expression touched us and brought us consolation and comfort because they are indicative of deep Catholic faith and of admirable Christian piety."

"We would assure you," he added, "of our thankfulness and we earnestly ask Almighty God, through the intercession of St. Pius X, to bless your beloved country and to grant it peace and prosperity."

The Pontiff concluded by imparting "our paternal Apostolic Benediction" on the President, government and people of the Philippines.

Bicycle Trick

A spectacular performance of trick bicycle riding can be seen this week at Roseland Park, Canandaigua where the famed Yokoi Troupe is now appearing. There are seven members of the Yokoi family in the troupe and they have literally cycled their way around the world after leaving their native Japan. Performances are scheduled at 8 and 10:30 nightly. Admission is always free.
