

Old Vatican Manuscripts Surprise 'Know-It-Alls'

Louisville, Ky.—(NC)—Moderns with a know-it-all smugness might be jolted by some of the centuries old manuscripts from the Vatican Library which the Knights of Columbus are microfilming for preservation at St. Louis University.

Reporting to a K. of C. Supreme Council meeting here, Father Joseph Donnelly, S.J., secretary of the Knights of Columbus Foundation for the Preservation of Historic Documents at the Vatican Library, said: "We have the idea that Americans know everything... but I was running through an 11th century medical book by an Arab doctor and came across his advice to use mold bread to heal wounds."

"The man was playing with penicillin and didn't know it."

GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

WHO if his left hand were cut off and bleeding would not use his right hand to bind it? The Catholics of northern Vietnam who fell to the Communists in the treaty of "Peace" at Geneva are a part of our body which is the Church. Feeling the agony of the 1,000,000 fellow Catholics in Vietnam, we say of that treaty with the Prophet Jeremiah: "And they healed the breach of the daughter of my people disgracefully, saying peace, peace and there was not peace."

Thousands who can escape the imminent persecution are fleeing to the South with a rosary, a crucifix and whatever clothing and food they can carry. There will now be a blackout over the Church in northern Vietnam as there is in Korea, China and Manchuria. Archbishop Philip Bernardini, General Secretary of the Holy Father's Missions in Rome, has better described the clergy and the faithful in these countries as belonging to "The Church of Silence."

They are silent! But shall we be silent too? Suppose the Communists overrun the United States to Denver, burned your schools and hospitals, tortured thousands of your priests and nuns and promised you their kind of "liberty" only on condition that you give up the faith. Would you not expect your brethren East of Denver to do something for you, to provide food and clothing, to quickly erect extra schools for your children, to heal your suffering? Well that is what the Church expects us to do now for the "Church of Silence."

Let your charity ring out, your sacrifice bespeak your faith and your aims proclaim your concern with the Church suffering. Whatever you send to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith is for the Holy Father, not for us. The Vicar of Christ dispensed your sacrifices as the Father of Christendom. In the name of Jesus and Mary, sacrifice a luxury, cut into your capital, send your old gold, show forth your unity with Christ Crucified. "What you have done to the least of these My brethren, you have done unto Me."

If you haven't gotten your GOD LOVE YOU MEDAL yet, your request and an offering of $5 will send you a sterling silver medal; or at your request and an offering of $10 we will send you a gold filled one.

GOD LOVE YOU to R. B. for $7.00, as usual is my dividend money from A. T. & T. stock... to T. P. for $2.98 "The enclosed sacrifice represents some of our weekly allowance and other earnings... to R. K. "I worked one day during my vacation. Here is the extra money I made to help the Missions... to A. M. G. for $10.00 "This is half of the profits I made selling cards last winter. I promised the money to the Missions if I were successful in my endeavor... to E. H. for $138.04. "This is the money I received for a load of barley. I promised to give the receipts to the Missions... to M. W. for $60.24 "I promised the first check I would get after I got my new job would go to the Missions, so here it is."

Cut out this column, pin your sacrifice to it and send to the Most Reverend Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 506 Fifth Ave., New York 1, N. Y. or your Diocesan Director, Very Rev. Mgr. John S. Randall, 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester, 4, New York.

St. James School, Waverly

PARISH SCHOOL IN WAVERLY—Cornerstone rites for the new St. James Parish School in Waverly were conducted Sunday by the Rev. G. Stuart Hogan, Pastor. The school will open on Sept. 8th with the first four grades. Assisting Father Hogan (in photo) are altar boys, Robert Nevadomski and Joseph Fravel, and Father Guy Wertz, assistant pastor. Watching the ceremonies (left to right) also are Sister Mathilda, Principal of the new school, Sister Mary Lourdes, and Michael Nolan (Waverly Sun Photo).

Cornerstone Rites Held For Waverly Parish School

Waverly—Simple rites marked the laying of the cornerstone for the new St. James School here Sunday morning following the eight o'clock Mass.

In the presence of more than 300 parishioners, the Rev. G. Stuart Hogan, pastor, sealed the stone which contained a history of the church as it appeared in the parish brochure and in the Waverly Sun, pictures of Father Hogan, Rev. Guy Wertz, assistant pastor, and Rev. Joseph McCarthy, his immediate predecessor, a copy of the Waverly Centennial brochure, and other items of historical value.

PRESENT AT the ceremony was Sister Mathilda, the newly appointed principal of the school which is scheduled to open on September 8th. Sister Mathilda will be joined later by Sister Agnes Rosalie and Sister Marie Matthew who are now on retreat. Until the convent is completed, the Sisters will make their home in St. Joseph's Hospital, Elmira.

The new 6-room school, constructed at the cost of $125,000, is located on Clark Street.

Although the school will be opened for the first, second and combined third and fourth grades on Sept. 8th, Father Hogan said the public reception will be held sometime in October when the official opening will be attended by His Excellency Bishop Kearney.

Confirmation will be conferred on that occasion also, Father Hogan announced.

Moral and spiritual values have an origin higher than any culture. A culture is man's collective estimate of values. The estimate is neither final nor self-sufficient nor, from generation to generation, the same.—Bishop Bartholomew J. Eastace.

Auburn, Elmira Slate High School Extensions

Two new extension schools will open this Fall in the dioceses of Rochester for a one year period to take care of the 9th grade student overflow at Elmira Catholic High School in Elmira, and Holy Family High School, Auburn.

The Elmira Catholic High Extension classes will be held in St. Mary's School. A new annex has been constructed at St. Francis of Assisi School, Auburn as an extension to Holy Family High School. The forty students enrolled will be taught by the Religious of Jesus and Mary.

Both extension schools are temporary measures and will be concluded when the new Mt. Carmel High School, Auburn and Notre Dame de Lourdes High School, Elmira, are completed. The two new high schools are now well along in construction and will be ready for occupancy sometime during the coming year, according to those in charge.

910 Students Enrolled At Mercy High

Students of Our Lady of Mercy High School, Blossom Rd., Rochester, will begin a new school year on Wednesday, Sept. 8 with an enrollment of 910 girls.

His Excellency Bishop Kearney will offer the Mass of the Holy Ghost for the student body in the auditorium on Monday, Sept. 13 at 9 a.m.

Appointments to the Mercy staff this year include: Sister Mary George, Sister Mary DeChantal, Sister Mary DeChantal, Sister Mary Chrysostom and Sister Mary Howard, the school nurse.

A new course has been added to the curriculum this year in Advanced Algebra, and also the course in Latin IV has been resumed.

Cadet Program In Third Year At Nazareth Hall

This year marks the third in the cadet program at Rochester's Nazareth Hall Cadet School and the seventh anniversary of the school itself, conducted by the Sisters of St. Joseph.

Approximately 135 boys will be under the cadet supervision of Captain William F. Dyrhoff of the U. S. Marine Corps. Captain Dyrhoff is a member of the Department of Naval Science, University of Rochester.

Since the beginning of the cadet program, Captain Dyrhoff has taken an active part in the formal inspections held twice each year and in the St. Thomas Honor Society for seventh and eighth grade cadets.

The work in athletics will be directed by Mr. Robert Brickell Greenwell, Com., and Mother Margaret Mary Hone, daughter of Mrs. Alexander B. Hone, Rochester, who is replacing Mother Starrs.

Mr. Wilfred Duquette, instructor in band instruments in Rochester Catholic schools and director of the inter-parochial orchestras, plans to enlarge the work of the Nazareth Hall Band to include a drum and bugle corps. The speech program will be conducted by Mrs. Jean Brasser.
