St. Anthony Novena Held By Parish

The new Novena in honor of St. Anthony started at St. Anthony's Church, Elmira, last week. Services consisting of Novena prayers to our lady of Fatima and St. Anthony, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and veneration of the relic of St. Anthony, are held each Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

The morning Novena services will be resumed on Tuesday morning at 11:15 after the opening of the school term.

Forty Hours

Devotions of the Forty Hours will be held in the following churches of the Diocese of Rochester: Sunday, Sept. 5—Rexville, Sep. 10 Center. Friday, Sept. 10—Chico; Genoa.

For prospective converts, the weekly meetings will offer an opportunity to learn much about the Catholic Faith.

For inquirers, the hour each week will enable them to learn the facts and truths about the Church of Rome.

For Catholics, this class will be a review of the Faith they have known from youth.

The opening of this Inquiry Class will mark the 10th Anniversary of the Inquiry Class Movement in Saint Peter and Paul's Parish. The first class was held in 1944 by the Rev. Joseph C. Merkel who was then assistant in the parish. After many successful series of classes conducted by Father Merkel, the movement was continued by the Rev. Thomas Florack and the Rev. Bartholomew O'Brien.

It is hoped that the success of the movement in Saint Peter and Paul's Parish (a movement which was relatively new in 1944) will encourage other parishes to adopt the system for the good of the convert work here in the Diocese.

The Sacrament of Baptism will be administered each Sunday at 7 p.m. and Novena Devotions will be held each Sunday afternoon at 5 p.m.

In the parish bulletin, "The Chinese," it was suggested that the outline of this new schedule be placed in a conspicuous place in the home for the convenience of the family.

Besides the new schedule, Father Bisky also announced that the parish school will re-open on Wednesday, Sept. 8. All the parish pupils (except those entering kindergarten) will begin the new school year by attending the opening day Mass in honor of the Christ Child at 9 a.m. Parents also will be welcome. The kindergarten will open on the following day.
