

New St. James School Opened With 111 Pupils

By ELIZABETH TUCCINARDI

Waverly—The new St. James School which will be officially dedicated on Sunday, Oct. 10 when His Excellency, Auxiliary Bishop Casey will also administer the Sacrament of Confirmation, opened its doors Wednesday morning to 111 children.

Directly after a Mass celebrated by the Rev. G. Stuart Hogan, pastor, at 9 a.m., the children were led in grades by the Sisters of St. Joseph through the wide corridors into unusually large classrooms.

Although the furniture had not yet arrived, folding chairs were in place for the children. Thirty-six children make up the first grade, 38 the second, 29 the third and 17 the fourth.

IN THE $125,000 structure are six classrooms, each measuring 24 by 32 feet, which is larger than the usual room. Outstanding features are the long bank of windows in each room, the cloakrooms having both an exit and an entrance, and the tile floors.

Classroom work has been used to separate the interior door from the exterior on all the exits, and it is used at the top of each classroom facing the corridor.

Radiators have been placed in each room under the entire bank of windows. The boiler is oil-fired and automatic.

THE AMERICAN flags which are in each classroom are the gift of Miss Mary Wiese, retired principal of the Lincoln Street school, Waverly, who gave $100.00 as a memorial.

Carol Anne Constance and James Walden, in second, third and fourth grades respectively, and Roberta, Dolores and George Tuocinardi, in first, second and third grades, represent hand-picked pupils in the school. The Tuocinardi children of Chemung, N. Y., are also the only pupils coming from out of town.

Father Whelan Slated To Address IFCA At Meeting Inaugurating Year's Activities

Another year of activity for the Rochester Circle, International Federation of Catholic Alumnae, will be launched on Wednesday, Sept. 22, when members gather for a dessert meeting at 8 p.m. at the Chatterbox Club, 25 N. Goodman St.

Mrs. John J. Mahoney regent will conduct the meeting and introduce the Very Rev. Gerard Whelan, C.S.S.R., who will be guest speaker.

A baked food sale in connection with the meeting is being sponsored by the mission committee, headed by Mrs. John Englert—the resulting proceeds to be used for mission needs.

Mrs. William J. Ryan is in charge of meeting arrangements and reservations to be made by Sept. 18. They are being accepted by Mrs. Beverly McLaughlin, Hopkins 5989, and Mrs. John Englert, Charlotte 0662-W.

THIS YEAR, the circle inaugurates a new program of four general meetings which have been arranged by Mrs. James Fahy, program chairman. Meetings are scheduled for Feb. 22, April 19, June 16 and Sept. 13. A book review will be given by Miss Helen Cahill. This is sponsored by the literature group under the chairmanship of Mrs. Herbert Vandenberg. On April 23 the meeting will be highlighted by a talk to be given by Miss Lois Hasenauer. This is being arranged by Mrs. Frank Richardson.

Election of officers will take place at the June meeting and, also, scheduled for June is a talk on mission experience by Rev. Bernard Brown, O.M.I., a Rochesterian in charge of an Oblate Indian Mission in the far north, mining center at Uranium City, Saskatchewan, Canada.

The third annual college seminar will be held on Oct. 10 at Our Lady of Mercy High School. This seminar is designed to acquaint girls of local area high schools with educational opportunities available at colleges affiliated with IFCA, according to Miss Jeanne Schneider, education chairman.

The literature group will be headed by Mrs. Donald Coffey. This group plans several book reviews and will continue collecting current novels to distribute to patients in local hospitals. Working with this group will be Mrs. Joan Garrity, Mrs. Herbert Vandenberg, Miss Emily Scoufflet and Mrs. Irving Redmond.

The mission committee, headed by Mrs. John Englert, plan several benefit activities which will lend aid to both foreign and domestic missions. They normally to roll bandages and pack medical supplies for mission fields. Working with Mrs. Englert will be Mrs. Edward Donoghue, Mrs. John Donovan, Mrs. William Fitzpatrick, Mrs. James Hill, Mrs. Edward Hamelen, Mrs. Frank O'Halloran, Miss Gloria Connor and Miss Rita Trost.

THE COMMUNITY relations program is under the direction of Mrs. Peter Calross. Under this program the circle will have Mrs. John Donovan as representative in the department of volunteers and Mrs. James Raines as delegate to the diocesan council. In charge of other activities of the group are Miss Esther Cleary, work for the blind; Mrs. Cecelia Fagan, girl scout work and Mrs. Gerald Barrett, family and youth.

Other committee chairmen appointed by Mrs. Mahoney include Miss Helen Durkin, spiritual advisor.

Abbot Primate Visits Monks At Mount Saviour

The Most Rev. Bernard Kaelin of Rome, Italy, Abbot Primate of the Order of St. Benedict, arrived at the Mount Saviour Monastery near Elmira last week for a three day visit.

Abbot Kaelin celebrated a High Mass according to the Abbatial Rite in the Chapel of Our Lady Queen of Peace. He was assisted by the Very Rev. Damasius Winzen and the Rev. Lambert Dunn, O.S.B., American secretary to the Primate. At this Mass, the Abbot Primate received the first vows of Brother Luke Pape of Toronto, Canada.

AFTER THE ceremony of profession, he addressed the more than 100 persons in attendance on the significance of the monk taking his vows, not only for the one being professed and his community, but also for the Italy.

He spoke of the great cooperation and help that had been given by friends of Mount Saviour from the surrounding area of the diocese. He was visibly impressed and elated at the progress that had been made in the monastery and he congratulated the community, assuring them of a continued growth with the blessing of God.

Abbot Kaelin dealt at length with the problem of Communism in Italy.

"The church is working hard to offset Communist influence in Italy," he said. "The first mission field today for Italy is Italy itself."

Abbot Kaelin said the Reds find their strength in the ignorance of the people and offer promises of better conditions for the workers in the land-poor nation.
