Mass, Orientation Program Set For Nazareth Opening

Official opening of the school year at Nazareth College, Rochester, will take place on Wednesday, Sept. 22 at 9 a.m., when His Excellency Bishop Kearney offers the Mass of the Holy Spirit in the college auditorium.

Members of the junior class at the women's college have prepared a three-day orientation program to welcome incoming freshmen prior to the official opening.

FRESHMEN WILL be welcomed on Monday, Sept. 20, by Sister Rose Angela, dean of Nazareth College, and will spend their first day getting acquainted with various faculty members and advisors. Following a tour of the campus, they will take a series of tests which are given annually to all new students.

"Get-acquainted" day, on Tuesday, Sept. 21, will give freshmen an opportunity to meet their "big sisters," members of the junior class. Afternoon entertainment will be provided by juniors and a short skit based on the theme of a well-known television program will highlight the program, with singing and dancing choruses.

Members of both the freshman and junior classes will attend a banquet in the college cafeteria

Lawrence McVinnie Elected President Of Catholic Theatre

Lawrence McVinnie was elected president of The Catholic Theatre of Rochester at a meeting of the membership last Sunday evening in Holy Redeemer school, hall, Hudson Ave.

He succeeds G. William Welser, first president of the organization.

L. McVinnie, who is associated with the Security Trust Co. is a parishioner of St. John the Evangelist Church, Rochester. He and his wife, Mary Reynolds McVinnie, are the parents of three children: Arlona, Patricia and Lawrence Jr.

Other members elected to office include: Mrs. McVinnie, vice president; Frank Resenberger, treasurer; Walter Kraft and Thelma Holmes, board members.

The theatre group is currently engaged in planning for the production of "KG," first full-length play of the 1954-55 season. Presentation is set for Friday and Saturday, Oct. 22 and 23, at Nazareth College auditorium, East Ave.

Cast for "KG" went into rehearsal this week under the direction of Ronald Pedron.

Annual DCCW Convention Slated To Open Oct. 13th

Annual Convention of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women will be held in Rochester on Monday, Oct. 13, opening with a Pontifical Mass in St. Mary Church.

Convention sessions, panels and the banquet will be held at the Rochester Chamber of Commerce Building.

A pre-convention meeting of the DCCW was held at the Knights of Columbus Building in Geneva on Sept. 12, when convention details were discussed.

The Rev. E. Leo McManus, professor at St. Bernard's Seminary, was introduced as the new diocesan moderator of the council.

REPORTS OF all deaconry presidents and other officers and chairmen of the Diocesan Council were submitted.

Mrs. James Rahn, president of the Rochester Deaconry was named as chairman of the convention and Mrs. Angelo Mastrella as vice-chairman.

Mrs. George Vogt will be in charge of tickets and Mrs. George Schneider, Auburn, has been named as toastmistress for the banquet.

Stenographers For Abroad Sought By State Department

Interested in far away places? Interested in knowing people from foreign lands? In rubbing elbows with people from Paris, Cairo or Istanbul? Interested in a fascinating assignment where you can carve yourself a career with limitless possibilities? If you are a stenographer the Department of State, from Washington, will be at the U.S. Post Office Building, 216 Cumberland Street, Rochester, New York, from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and until 7 p.m. Wednesday to interview stenographers, secretaries, typists, and general clerks for assignments abroad. Interviews will be held through Sept. 24.

Applicants must be American citizens, between 21 and 35 years of age in excellent health, high school graduates, and available for assignment to any of approximately 270 American diplomatic and consular posts in foreign countries.

All applicants must be excellent typists and have had at least three years of office experience. Business school or college training may be substituted for all but one year of the work experience requirements. Stenographers must be able to shorthand at 80 words a minute.

Candidates selected for employment will receive training in the Department's Foreign Service Institute in Washington, D.C., prior to departure for posts overseas. Beginning salaries for these positions are $262.50 per month, plus rental allowance and, in certain countries, cost-of-living allowance. An additional salary differential is paid to employees serving at difficult or hardship posts abroad.
