Father Ehmann Welcomes 100 Student Nurses

Elmira - St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing, Elmira, opened its school year on Wednesday, Sept. 15, with a Mass at 7:30 a.m. in the Nurses' Residence, celebrated by the Rev. Benedict Ehmann, pastor of St. Mary's of the Lake Church, Watkins Glen.

Present in the sanctuary was the Rev. Philip E. McGhan, hospital chaplain. About 100 students of St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing, and Nazareth College nursing students, assisted at the Mass, as well as faculty members and hospital sisters.

Father Ehmann offered his Mass for the success of the school year, and following the Mass was the speaker at a Communion Breakfast held in the Nurses' Dining Room.

FATHER MCGHAN acted as toastmaster at the breakfast and introduced Miss Janet Mattice, president of the Student Government Association, who thanked Father Ehmann and welcomed the freshman class to the school.

Father McGhan welcomed the new class and greeted the student body before introducing Father Ehmann.

Others seated at the speaker's table were Teresa Belme, vice-president of the Student Government Association; Patricia Callahan, president of the Junior class; and Angela Novelli, vice-president of the Junior class; Margaret Daly, president of the Nazareth College Nursing group, and Mary Clair Woodhouse, Executive of the Sodality.

Father Ehmann told the nurses that he was proud to have been invited to participate in the opening of the school year at St. Joseph's. He pointed out that the new class, especially, must feel a sense of privilege now to be part of this institution, which has a reputation for good, devoted and skillful service.

Father said that by this hospital the name Catholic is enhanced, that its nurses are in contact with an influence as solid as its buildings, and the faith that has built them.

He selected as the theme of his talk, The Blessed Virgin in Her Title as Mother of Sorrows, Queen of Martyrs, whose feast was being celebrated. Father pointed out that the nurses can find in the faithful, sorrowful Mother their best model, and reminded his listeners that she is the Mother of us all.

Miss Ludden, who has been in the club only five months, was recently named "Fishette of the Month" by fellow club members.

She came to Rochester several months ago from Wellsville to work for Sausch and Lomb Optical Co. Her father is mayor of Wellsville.
