Father Ehmann Welcomes 100 Student Nurses

Elmira — St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing, Elmira, opened its school year on Wednesday, Sept. 15, with a Mass at 7:30 a.m. in the Nurses' Residence, celebrated by the Rev. Benedict A. Ehmann, pastor of St. Mary's of the Lake Church, Watkins Glen.

Present in the sanctuary were the Rev. Philip E. McGhan, hospital chaplain, and about 100 students of St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing, and Nazareth College nursing students assisted at the Mass, as well as faculty members and hospital Sisters.

Father Ehmann offered his Mass for the success of the school year, and following the Mass, was the speaker at a Communion Breakfast held in the Nurses' Dining Room.

FATHER MCGHAN acted as toastmaster at the breakfast, and introduced Miss Janet Button, president of the Student Government Association, who thanked Father Ehmann and welcomed the freshmen class to the school. Father McGhan welcomed the new class, and greeted the student body before introducing Father Ehmann.

Father Ehmann told the nurses that he was proud to have been invited to participate in the opening of the school year at St. Joseph's. He pointed out that the new class, especially, must feel a sense of privilege now to be part of this institution, which has a reputation for good, devoted and skillful service.

Father said that by this hospital the name Catholic is enhanced.

Rosary, Altar Society Slates Communion

Members of Our Lady of Lourdes Rosary Altar Society, in Elmira, will hold their annual Communion breakfast on Sunday, Oct. 10 at the Mark Twain Hotel following reception of Holy Communion by the group at the 8:30 a.m. Mass.

Mrs. Frank Deet and Mrs. John McInerney are co-chairmen of the breakfast and in charge of reservations.

At the conclusion of the breakfast, officers for the new year will be installed.

Officers for 1953-54 are Mrs. Frank Deet, president; Mrs. Norman Baker and Mrs. John Doyle, vice presidents; Mrs. William Clark, treasurer; Mrs. John McInerney, secretary.

born: Father told the nurses that Christ sees that they will be there and He will be doing it in them and through them.

FATHER EHMMANN referred to the doctors, nurses, Sisters and priests as "Christ active" and to the patient as the "passive Christ." As he received care from His Mother, the patient receives care from the nurse.

He continued that a professional nurse who lives up to her ethics is an asset to any community, but that as a Christian nurse she is a still greater asset. Wherever they go, the speaker told them, it will be sort of Calvary, a perpetual Way of the Cross, and he encouraged the nurses to get in there and bear witness to the suffering of mankind.

Father Ehmann concluded his talk by leaving the thought with his listeners that with Our Blessed Mother of Sorrows as their model, their compassion will be great, and their charity, love and mercy much more than medicine. Their compassion for people calls for self-sacrifice.

And he cautioned the nurses against two evils in this regard. First to guard against becoming calloused and indifferent in the sight of suffering and second, against becoming so much involved emotionally in the suffering of others that the nurse forgets to use good judgment. Mary was the Virgin Mother. Her maternal heart poured out to others.

Tenth Anniversary Slated At Dominican Monastery

On Oct. 3, the Dominican Nuns of the Perpetual Rosary will celebrate their tenth anniversary in Elmira. The annual Rosary Novena will begin on Saturday, Sept. 25, at 7:30 p.m. and continue until Oct. 3.

Devotions each evening during the Novena at 7:30, will consist of the Rosary, Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary, special Novena prayers for all those making the Novena and their intentions, closing each evening with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

There will be a short talk each evening on the Apparitions of Our Blessed Lady since 1830 by the chaplain, Rev. Michael L. Hynes. The talks will stress Mary's continuing attempt to bring our modern world back to God by prayer and penance as emphasized at each Apparition.

THE SISTERS invite all to attend any or all of the Novena exercises, especially that on Rosary Sunday afternoon. They wish it to be a tribute to Thanksgiving to God for the hundred-fold blessing given them during their past ten years, also an outward expression of appreciation to all the friends of the diocese and particularly to their friends in Elmira.

The Community has grown from eight choir Sisters to 16 during their ten years in Elmira, which they feel is a token of Heaven's approval, but which also brings a problem of the need of a Sister's choir with a small chapel adjoining. The present over-crowded room makes it impossible to carry out the beautiful observance of the Order or to fulfill their choir duties in a fitting manner.

Perpetual Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament will be added to that of the Rosary in a new chapel built solely for the honor of God and His Blessed Mother.

Forty Hours devotion will open in St. Anthony's Church, Elmira, on Sunday at the 11 a.m. Mass.

The Rev. Anthony Novello, assistant pastor of the Church of Epiphany, Sayre, will preach at the evening services.

Services will be held each evening at 7:30 with solemn closing taking place Tuesday evening. The Novena prayers will be said on Tuesday in conjunction with the regular forty hour services.

On Monday and Tuesday mornings, Holy Communion will be distributed at 6 and 8:30 and at the Masses to be celebrated at 7:30 and 8 a.m.

Confessions will be heard after the evening services.

Holy Name Rally Iowa City, Ia. (NC) — The annual Holy Name rally of the Davenport diocese, this year designated as the "Marian Year Rally," attracted 12,000 people to the University of Iowa field house. The theme was "To Christ Through Mary."

Waverly — Construction of a permanent home and meeting place is being planned by Waverly Council 251, Knights of Columbus, it was announced Monday by Richard Coleman.

Actual construction will probably not start for another four or five years, Coleman said, and pointed out that the plans under consideration call for an entirely new building with a site to be selected for convenience of parking and a central location.

INCREASED membership over the past two years and the fact that new members are continually being added have made a permanent home a necessity, he said. The council at present meets in the Albertson building.
