80 Waterloo Students Attend Annual Communion Breakfast

Waterloo—Eighty Catholic students of Waterloo High School attended the first annual Communion breakfast sponsored by the Waterloo Council, Knights of Columbus Sunday following 9 a.m. Mass in St. Mary's Church.

The students were escorted from the church to the Knights of Columbus Home by the Fourth Degree honor guard. The breakfast was part of the six-point program for the year with Robert Holcomb, grand knight, and Edward Mahoney as chairmen of breakfast arrangements. The function was promoted by the Catholic Youth Advisory Committee with Joseph French as chairman.

REV. GEORGE T. McCALL, pastor of St. Mary's, warned the students of the threat of Communism to our democratic way of life.

Edward Toornis was toastmaster and Edward Mahoney read a letter of thanks to the principal of Waterloo High School for the assistance he had given.

Assisting in the planning were: Roscoe Barran, Joseph Sacco, Fred Laun, Sgt. Philip Owen, Mrs. Elizabeth Sacco and Mrs. Ruth Holcomb.

Third Order Secular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel monthly meetings will be resumed on Sunday, Oct. 3, at 3:30 p.m. in St. Francis of Assisi Church, Orange and Whitney Streets. Rev. Joseph A. Cirincione, Spiritual Director, will conduct the meeting.

Anyone interested in attending the meeting is invited.

The library will be open before and after the meeting for the use of the faithful.

During October, the month especially dedicated to the Rosary, families are reminded of their obligation to the Blessed Mother to say their Rosary daily. "We, who are consecrated to her through her Scapular, know that she is counting on us to help her save the world from destruction."
