Mission Club At Montour Falls Opens Campaign

At the first meeting of the current school year held last Sunday at St. John's Ateneum Seminary, the mission club outlined its plan of activities for the year.

The president, Tom Sykes of Phoenixville, Pa., urged the members to a renewal of zeal for the missions. He expressed the hope that the members this year would equal if not surpass the wonderful work done last year. Due to the generous support of many readers of the Courier-Journal last year the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade unit was able to furnish more than 3500 pounds of used clothing and religious articles to the poor on missions in this country and abroad, he said.

THE PRESIDENT expressed the hope that the many friends in the Rochester diocese would continue to assist the Crusade with used clothing and religious articles as they have done in the past. He also expressed the hope that the problem of postage expenses involved in sending the packages to the missions would be somewhat alleviated by donations, no matter how small the donations.

Sykes is assisted this year by David Fitzgerald of Auburn, vice president; Kevin Ryan of Northwalk, Conn., secretary and Anthony Vitke of Baltimore, treasurer.

In closing the meeting Sykes urged the members to repay the kindness of the benefactors of the missions with a remembrance in their prayers and good works. Those who may have used clothing or religious articles for which they have no further use may send them to:
