Annual Student Retreat Conducted In Hornell

Hornell—The second annual student retreat for high school pupils and other teenagers opened Sunday evening in St. Ann Church.

This year's spiritual exercises were conducted by the Rev. Crispin Lynch, C.P., of St. Mary's Pastoral Ministry in Dunkirk. SERVICES for the three evenings include prayer, readings, Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Father Lynch selected, for his sermon theme, "The Way of Life."

He stressed the purpose of life and a plan of action based on the teachings of the Church. Man is created by and for God, Father Lynch pointed out, and is given definite means for fulfilling his destiny. These means include prayer to reach God; faith to believe in God and charity which is knowledge and faith in action.

"Living according to God's plan results in peace and, eventually happiness when this peace has been obtained," Father Lynch declared. He discussed the Sacrament of Confession as a means of securing the peace. God intends for man and courtship or seeking a partner in life in the plan for peaceful living.

MORNING INSTRUCTIONS Monday and Tuesday dealt with virtues such as Faith and obedience. Father Lynch has had extensive experience in student instruction. He has done vocational guidance work in Dunkirk and was, for several years, a consultant in problems of delinquency in the Toronto area. He has given numerous retreats and missions in the Pastoral Eastern Mission Band.

Corning Newspaper Salutes St. Patrick School Student

Corning—A 13-year old St. Patrick Parochial School student, Richard Kapral, is the subject in a special tribute paid by the Corning Leader, local newspaper, as the first of a series of articles, "Meet Your Newboy." Dick is a Leader carrier.

The salute to the lad follows: Richard Kapral has been a carrier for The Corning Leader since July, 1953. His bank balance is growing—he deposits half of everything he gets each week and now it's quite a tidy sum—he said. "So he's planning to go on to college—but some time before then it things work out right he'd like to spend some of his money for a second hand car. The other half of his weekly earnings, you see, are turned over to his mother, to be sort of laid out when an emergency arises." The son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Kapral, 343 Woodview Avenue, he keeps busy in extracurricular activities. He's one of the boys who puts the flag out every morning and takes it down at night, and burns the papers and monitors the stairs. Delivering The Leader takes just under an hour of his time each afternoon. He carries it to his customer's from Commerce to Beach Street, or Market, or Davidson Parkway, or Steuben, to Oak and to Peach Streets and thereabouts. He was active for about two years in his Boy Scout troop, but since the Scoutmaster, Robert Sutherland, moved away, things have lagged a little and a new Scoutmaster is needed. Richard has the sisters, Lorraine, 9, who is in the fourth grade at St. Patrick's, and Joan, 7, who doesn't go to school yet, who stays home and gets into his sister's things and cuts up generally," said Richard. "But she's a good kid," he continued. "I have two rooms at home, sort of a den and then a bedroom. I like to read a lot of books in my den." Hobbies? Well, Richard watches his change in search of coins with 13 stars around the head of the figure of Liberty. "Don't know whether they're worth much, but it's nice to have them," he said.
