Father Barnett To Address Club Group

Fifteen Decades The Rosary as we know it, actually is a "chaplet," one-third of a full Rosary.

Young Matrons' Group of the Catholic Women's Club will hear the Rev. James R. Barnett, S.J., rector of the new McQuaid Jesuit, High School for boys in Rochester, at their next meeting to be held at the club house at 8 p.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 13.

Father Barnett, with his background of teaching, boys' schools, and travel, will bring a message of special interest to these women, many of whom are the mothers of young boys.

Mrs. D. P. Reinhardt is chairman in charge of refreshments. Members have been requested to bring their cancelled stamps and discarded linen for bandages to be used in their mission projects.

Mass Marks Golden Jubilee Of Geneva Parish

Geneva — His Excellency Bishop Kearney delivered the sermon at the 50th anniversary celebration of St. Stephen Parish last Sunday noting that "this parish has been a mother to Catholics in a very real sense. That is why we call her 'Holy Mother, the Church.'"

"Where do we find this spirit of motherhood expressed so vividly as in the 50 years of this church," he declared. He stated that a mother is a "teacher and trainer . . . so this church has been a teacher for several generations of those who have come asking to hear the word of God as it has been found in the Old Testament and the teachings of Christ."

"The altar, the pulpit and the confessional . . . tell the story of why we like to speak of her as 'Our Mother, the Church,'" the Bishop said.

"It is a happy and inspiring coincidence," he said, "that the Golden Jubilee of this beautiful church should find itself in this special year dedicated to the Mother of God."

Bishop Kearney also advised that "We of St. Stephen's have little time to look upon the past—so challenging are the problems of today—and so pressing the obligations of the future."

"No matter where we are, we have a definite place in which to make known Christ's Gospel to the world. If we fall Him, we have failed our Mother."

"Let us then on this Jubilee day resolve to take our place in the great battle of the idealism of Jesus of Nazareth. There is no one of us who will not at one time or another have an opportunity to do this."

Bishop Kearney presided at the ceremonies assisted by the Very Rev. Msgr. John E. Maney, S.T.D., and the Very Rev. Edward K. Ball, V.F. The Rev. John L. Coonan was master of ceremonies.

The Rev. Raymond P. Nolan, pastor, was celebrant of the anniversary Mass, and also extended a welcome to the bishop and to parishioners and guests on the anniversary celebration.

Assisting Father Nolan, were the Rev. Joseph F. Hogan, deacon, the Rev. William H. Hickey, subdeacon. St. Stephen's choir under the direction of Leland Flora sang the Mass.

The Gothic altars of the church were illuminated by many lighted tapers. Bouquets of golden roses in gold vases lent their beauty to the setting.

Gold vestments especially purchased for the jubilee year were worn by the clergy at the celebration of the solemn high mass.

Preceding the ceremonies, an organ recital was given by James Lynch, organist.

Geneva Knights of Columbus headed the procession to the church. They marched from their home on Milton St. Fourth Degree members in their colorful red and blue robes and plumed hats provided a guard of honor for Bishop Kearney. A color guard was also formed by the Fourth Degree.

The Knights were seated in a section reserved for them at the front of the church. A large number of Sisters including those from Geneva and from other communities were also seated in a section reserved for them.

A Solemn High Mass for all of the members of St. Stephen's parish was celebrated at 9 a.m., Tuesday by the Very Rev. Msgr. John E. Maney, S.T.D., The Rev. John A. Guy was deacon, and the Rev. William E. Davis, subdeacon.

Closing event was a parish dinner at 7 p.m. Tuesday in Club 86. The Rev. Elmer McNamara, S.T.D., S.S.L., was speaker. Rt. Rev. M. Gerard McCinley, O.C.S.O., Abbot of Our Lady of the Genesee Monastery, was guest of honor.
