

LAST WEEK'S PAID CIRCULATION
48,745

THE CATHOLIC Courier Journal

OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER OF THE ROCHESTER DIOCESE
ROCHESTER, N. Y., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1954

Editorial

Features

See Page 4

Propagation Of Faith Report

Diocese Donated $282,549.70 To In 1953

of Rochester provided 1252 of the Church's worldwide IS, according to the annual Randall, diocesan director of

Sunday

Oct. 24

real to your generosity on Propagation of the Faith of service.

Some young men or women of our Church leave home Holy Father has begged service of modern apostles. rifice would be a hopeless less some one undertake spiritual and financial help need for their work. On Sunday the universal Church these missionaries in all- masses over the world and your prayers and your assistance in the Mission Co- the Propagation of the comes during the Marian the special honor of the that, in her special honor, offering next Sunday as you will be paying her a for her Marian Year and own to so many souls under need to much her mother's diocese to the Mission is Let us preserve the honored

I am devoted Shepherd in Christ, James E. Kearney Bishop of Rochester is to be taken up at all the 24.

son of the Faith. In the year to the missions totalled the 1953 Propagation of the 1954 annual Mission Collection day (Oct. 24) in all churches out that Mission Sunday con- to $73,502.60.

MISSION REPORT
Details of the 1953 receipts and expenditures of the Diocesan Office of the Society of the Propagation of the Faith will be found in a special Mission Sunday supplement published with this issue of the Courier-Journal.

amounting to $60,772.78. A total of $63,867.84 was realized through the Missionary Plan. This program allows each parish to give one collection each year to some one missionary society. The report also includes $17,502.50 provided through wills, and $21,554.55 in Mass Stipends distributed to missionary priests.

Children in the schools raised $26,583.19 through the Holy Childhood Association. Miscellaneous income amounted to $169.78.

Newark Archbishop Receives Pallium In New Cathedral

Newark, N. J. — (NO) — The solemn and colorful ceremony of the presentation of the pallium to Newark's Archbishop Thomas A. Boland marked the formal opening of the newly completed Cathedral of the Sacred Heart here.

The rituals also marked the closing of the centennial year of the establishment of Newark as a diocese. It was given the status of a diocese in 1853 and raised to an archdiocese in 1953. The pallium, which is a symbolic of the fullness of the Archbishop's office, was conferred upon Archbishop Boland by His Excellency, Amleto Giovanni Cicognani, Apostolic Delegate to the States, who also presided at the Solemn Pontifical Mass. The officiating priest was James A. Boland.

QUEZON'S SON GOES

Manila—Manuel Quezon Jr., 29, on Monday was named as the Philip- pines' first minor orders of Man- certain functions in the Catholic Church. He is the son of the late President Quezon, who died in 1944. He is the youngest of five children. He is a member of the Philippine Nationalist Party. He is a member of the Philippine Nationalist Party. He is a member of the Philippine Nationalist Party.

President To N.C.C.W.C.

Washington (NO)—President Eisenhower will attend the opening general session of the 27th national convention of Catholic Women in Washington, D.C., on November 7. The convention will be held from November 7-10.

Governor Christian A. H. Foster of Massachusetts and some two-score members of the American Hierarchy are also expected to attend. The convention will bring together some 3,000 delegates representing eight million Catholic women.

Speakers at the various sessions will include Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations; Dr. Richard Pattee, National Catholic Welfare Conference consultant on international affairs; and Lucile Hasley, widely known Catholic author.

THE SESSION which President Eisenhower will attend will be addressed by Archbishop Richard J. Cushing of Boston, host to the convention and Episcopal Chairman of the N.C.C.W.C. Department of Lay Organizations. The convention's formal opening is set for Sunday morning, November 7, when Archbishop Albert G. Meyer of Milwaukee will preach at the Solemn Pontifical Mass.

This will be preceded on Saturday, November 6, by informal sessions for presidents of diocesan and state councils and affiliated national organizations of Catholic women. A simultaneous session will be held for diocesan presidents.

Ambassador Lodge, and Bishop John J. Wright of Worcester, will speak on Monday evening, November 8. In a general meeting devoted to international relations, Dr. Richard Pattee will speak on "A Catholic Layman in the Contemporary World." Other international figures taking part in the gathering will be four representatives of the World Union of Catholic Women's Organizations (WUCWO).

THE PRESIDENT of the WUCWO, Marie du Rostu of Paris, France, will speak on "WUCWO: Its Work for Church and Humanity." Other representatives of the organization at the convention will be: Monsieur le Chanoine Lamont, spiritual moderator; Mlle. F. de Saint-Maurice, secretary general, both of France; and Señora Eldorja Sorzano de Villalon of Cuba, a member of the bureau of the group.

The WUCWO is one of five international Catholic organizations that has consultative status before the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations. The National Council of Catholic Women is affiliated with the worldwide organization.

Nothing will bring more cheer to a shut-in than a lovely bouquet of flowers. Call Mrs. Mary E. Baker, 4844 Lee Street, Lakewood, N.Y., for a bouquet of flowers. Delivery in 30 minutes. Call Mrs. Baker, 4844 Lee Street, Lakewood, N.Y., for a bouquet of flowers.

DEDICATION SUPPLEMENT

St. Agnes High School for Girls
Rochester, N. Y.

As Modern as a Prayer for Peace

Sisters of St. Joseph

The congregation was founded in France in the year 1650. First Sisters arrived in the United States in the winter of 1836 at New Orleans. The congregation extended to Canandaigua, N. Y., in the year 1854 to become identified with the educational and religious growth of the Rochester Diocese. (Full story on inside pages)

St. Agnes Curriculum

Basically a full academic course with a preparatory glimpse into all the fields of art, science, and culture. To the core of academics has been added a Domestic Science course in home economics, a Home Making course including sewing and garment making and a Christian Family Living Course. (Full details on inside pages)

DEDICATION DAY

All are welcome.

Open for public inspection immediately following dedication.

SUNDAY, OCT. 17

Ceremonies begin at 3 p.m.

Most Rev. James E. Kearney, Bishop of Rochester officiating.

...the years of suffering which began in babyhood when Julia announced a victim of rheumatic fever, left her physically weak and thin in proportion to other girls her age. But her faith is stronger than most and her grilla has provided courage to many a bedside patient.

As her condition became stand-

...doctors, she spent nine months in the Children's Seashore House, Atlantic City, N. J., and finally was sent to Philadelphia General Hospital. At the latter institution it was learned for the first time that the girl was not plagued by rheumatic fever but that she had holes in two sides of her heart.

A BARE OPERATION was called for—but the tiny girl was by that time too weak to undergo such a strain. The doctors

...finally on September 22, Julia entered the Philadelphia municipal hospital's operating room, where she remained for four hours while the holes in her heart were drawn together by a surgeon's needle.

The heart became reduced in size almost immediately and doctors hope that soon it will be normal.

"If I become strong enough, some day I'll be a Sister," Julia said. "I believe I will get strong."

...alier, came close on the heels of demands by Councilman George L. Stowe, now a candidate for Ohio state senator.

The new ordinance provides a stiffer penalty for the offender when the recipient of such literature is a minor and it contains a section obviously aimed at curbing horror and lust comics.

Not only the captain, but his four children were received into the Church at the same time. They were Peter, 9; Michael, 7; Kathy Louise, 5; and Nancy, only 3 months. His wife, Betty Lou, who had been baptized a Catho-