First Mission Cross
Mission Cross Bestowal, Memorial Banquet Draw 300 To Padua High School

Proceeds of the ticket sale for the dinner. Msgr. Balcerak spoke briefly at the banquet. Father George in his talk reviewed the life and work of Coach Franzese and declared "he was a good Catholic." Arthur was toastmaster. Introduced by Richards were Robert Wendland of Elmira, new director of physical education at Padua; the Rev. Francis Waterstreet of Penn Yan; the Rev. John Brill of Hammondsport; the Rev. Benedict Ehman and the Rev. Hugh Brady, of St. Mary's, Watkins Glen; Father Peter of St. John's Atonement Seminary, Montour Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Franzese, parents of "Jimmy"; Mrs. Emmett Gilson, Father Gordian, O.S.A. of St. Joseph's, Padua.

There are souls to save. They are eager to hear the word of God and they will be eager to hear this missionary. Members of the Franciscan Order taking part in the ceremony.

ON the occasion of the dedication of the new Saint Agnes High School, the Sisters of Saint Joseph thank all who have made the building possible: His Excellency, Bishop Kearney; His Excellency, Bishop Casey; the priests of the diocese; the generous people of Rochester and vicinity, who made financial contribution for its erection; finally, the architects and the builders, whose services and skill gave life to Christian ideals to honor Saint Agnes of Rome.

In behalf of our communities we offer this sincere note of thanks and urge the people of The Greater Corning Area to attend the churches of their choice tomorrow and every Sunday. Divine guidance is one of the greatest needs of our times and everyone of us should give thanks in prayer and participation in religious worship for the blessings we enjoy. We are ever mindful
