convenes in New York, we pray that our Father in Heaven, God of all nations, will bless the representatives of the various countries gathered in His presence for man's welfare; bless them with the knowledge of His truth and His mercy, with His wisdom and His spirit of peace that they may know peace and I ay sow peace upon earth for the sake of God's glory.

"No nation without God can give God's peace who know His peace. Therefore do we pray the blessings of God's peace for all nations, a peace, not imposed by force or fear, no bought by gold or guile, not gained by blood baths of hate but a peace, the gift of God's giving to men of good will for godly living."
