Communion Breakfast Held By Newark Women's Group
Newark—Annual Communion breakfast of the Rosary Altar Society of St. Michael Parish, Newark was held Oct. 24 at the Gardenier Hotel, with 80 ladies attending.

Mrs. William R. Noonan, president, welcomed the ladies and called attention to the fact that they were giving honor to Mary as Lady of the Rosary and as Our Lady of Fatima through a shrine in her honor.

Rev. John Connolly spoke briefly on his work as chaplain at the Newark State School. Through his remarks, the ladies gained a greater sense of responsibility in participating in the home training and rehabilitation of the employables at the school.

Main speaker at the breakfast was the Rev. James Lane, formerly an assistant at St. Michael Church and at the present time assistant at St. Patrick's in Rochester. During World War II he served with our Armed Forces in Germany in the rank of Lt. Col.

Father Lane's topic "The Light of the World" was most appropriate and gave encouragement to the work of the Christophers, which had already been started by the society.

The breakfast was held under the chairmanship of Mrs. A. W. Callin.

Nazareth Academy Rites Honor Christ The King
"You, by your Faith and by your enrollment as a Socialist, are a Lady-In-Waiting to the King."
This thought was the keynote of an address by the Rev. Charles B. Connell, chaplain of Nazareth Academy, to the almost 1,000 students assembled in the school auditorium last Friday for a ceremony honoring Christ the King.

"Your qualities must be those of a true Lady-In-Waiting; otherwise you are not worthy of the honor of serving the King," Father stated. "Courtesy, loyalty, obedience, and devotion become a lady, and they should be so evident in you that others will recognize you as Ladies-In-Waiting to the King of Heaven," the chaplain explained.

THE CEREMONY was sponsored by the Sodality of Our Lady which is headed by Joan Cook. Leaders of all school organizations voiced the sovereignty of Christ over all intramural activity groups. This was followed by Consecration to Christ the King by the whole student body. Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament and prayers for the Church and Civil authorities ended the service.

Student planners said that the ceremony would be a fitting opening to Catholic Youth Week, and they asked that the whole school receive Holy Communion on the Feast of the Kingship of Christ.

Organization leaders were Betty Marsh, Joan Cook, Marie DeSardo, Gall. Mastello, Margaret Streb, Mary Ellen Lawler, Barbara Pitoni, Suzanne Cris, Mary Corby, Patricia Bianchi, Petrina Critelli, Christine Berent, Dorine Homan, Grace Samenlik, Kathleen Gordon, Nancy Hackett, Rosemary Zaitli, Rosalie Leary, Rosemary Zaitli, Rosalie Leary, Joseph Hospital, Elmer, Mrs. grandchildren, one sister, Mrs. Mary Woodruff, Arlington, Va.; nieces and nephews.

Final blessing was offered in All Souls' Chapel, Holy Sepulchre Cemetery by Father Charles Hynes, pastor of the congregation, St. Joseph Hospital, Elmer, Mrs. grandchildren, one sister, Mrs. Mary Woodruff, Arlington, Va.; nieces and nephews.
